[Section 4 amended by No. 67 of 1979 s. 71.]

Part II — Recreational charities

5. General provisions as to recreational and similar trusts etc.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, it is, and shall be deemed always to have been, charitable to provide, or to assist in the provision of, facilities for recreation or other leisure-time occupation, if the facilities are provided in the interests of social welfare.
- (2) The requirement of subsection (1) that the facilities be provided in the interests of social welfare is not satisfied unless —
 - (a) the facilities are provided with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities are primarily intended; and
 - (b) either —
 - (i) those persons have need of those facilities by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disablement, poverty or social and economic circumstances; or
 - (ii) the facilities are to be available to members, or to male or female members, of the public at large.
- (3) Subject to the requirement of subsection (1) that the facilities be provided in the interests of social welfare, that subsection applies in particular to the provision of facilities at public halls, community centres, and women's institutes, and to the provision and maintenance of grounds and buildings to be used for purposes of recreation or leisure-time occupation, and extends to the provision of facilities for those purposes by the organising of any activity.
- (4) Nothing in this section derogates from the principle that a trust or institution, to be charitable, must be for the public benefit.

6. Savings and provisions as to past transactions

- (1) Nothing in this Part restricts the purposes which are to be regarded as charitable independently of this Part.
- (2) Nothing in this Part —
 - (a) applies to make charitable any trust, or to validate any disposition, of property, if before the commencement of this Act that property, or any property representing or forming part of it, or any income arising therefrom, has been paid or conveyed to, or applied for the benefit of, or set apart for, the persons entitled by reason of the invalidity of the trust or disposition; or
 - (b) affects any order or judgment made or given in legal proceedings before the commencement of this Act; or
 - (c) requires anything properly done before the commencement of this Act, or anything done or to be done in pursuance of a contract entered into before that commencement, to be treated for any purpose as wrongful or ineffectual.

Part III — Schemes in respect of charitable trusts

7. Property may be disposed of for other charitable purposes

- (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), where any property or income is given or held upon trust, or is to be applied, for any charitable purpose, and —
 - (a) it is impossible, impracticable or inexpedient to carry out that purpose; or
 - (b) the amount available is inadequate to carry out that purpose; or
 - (c) that purpose has been effected already; or
 - (d) that purpose is illegal or useless or uncertain,then (whether or not there is any general charitable intention) the property and income, or any part or residue thereof, or the proceeds of sale thereof, shall be disposed of for some other charitable purpose, or a combination of such purposes, in accordance with a scheme approved under this Part.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (3), where any property or income is given or held upon trust, or is to be applied, for any charitable purpose, and the property or income that has accrued or will accrue is more than is necessary for the purpose, then (whether or not there is any general charitable intention) any excess property or income or proceeds of sale may be disposed of for some other charitable purpose, or a combination of such purposes, in accordance with a scheme approved under this Part.
- (3) This section shall not operate to cause any property or income to be disposed of as provided in subsection (1) or (2) —
 - (a) if, in accordance with any rule of law, the intended gift thereof would otherwise lapse or fail and the property or income would not be applicable for any other charitable purpose; or
 - (b) if, and so far as, the property or income can be disposed of under section 16 of the Charitable Collections Act 1946.
- (4) This section extends to cases where the charitable purpose affecting any property or income is defined by a scheme approved by the Court or the Attorney General under this Part or otherwise, and in any such case the original purpose or purposes may be restored, with or without modification.
- (5) The provisions of this section apply with respect to trusts created, and to schemes approved, before or after the commencement of this Act.

[Section 7 amended by No. 7 of 1998 s. 4.]

7A. Small trusts may be terminated

- (1) Where —
 - (a) any property is given or held upon trust, or is to be applied, for any charitable purpose; and
 - (b) the value of the property (including any accumulated income) is less than $15 000 or such greater amount as is prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; and
 - (c) the value of the property is too small, in relation to the charitable purpose, for any useful purpose to be achieved by the expenditure of only the income derived from that property, then the property may be disposed of for that or another charitable purpose and the trust may be terminated in accordance with a scheme approved under this Part.

- (2) This section extends to cases where the charitable purpose affecting any property is defined by a scheme approved under this Part.
- (3) The provisions of this section apply with respect to trusts created, and to schemes approved, before or after the commencement of the *Charitable Trusts Amendment Act 1998*¹.

[Section 7A inserted by No. 7 of 1998 s. 5.]

7B. Combining property held for similar purposes

- (1) Where —
 - (a) any property or income is given or held upon trust, or is to be applied, for any charitable purpose; and
 - (b) the charitable purpose could be more effectively carried out if the property and income were combined with other property and income given or held on trust, or to be applied, for a similar purpose, then the property and income may be combined, and jointly administered and applied, with that other property and income in accordance with a scheme approved under this Part.

- (2) This section extends to cases where the charitable purpose affecting any property or income is defined by a scheme approved under this Part.
- (3) The provisions of this section apply with respect to trusts created, and to schemes approved, before or after the commencement of the *Charitable Trusts Amendment Act 1998*¹.

[Section 7B inserted by No. 7 of 1998 s. 5.]

8. Extension of powers or alteration of mode of administration of trust

- (1) Where any property or income is given or held upon trust, or is to be applied, for any charitable purpose, and the administration of the property or income, or the carrying out of the trust, could be facilitated by extending or varying the powers of the trustees, or by prescribing or varying the mode of administering the trust, the powers of the trustees may be extended or varied, and the mode of administering the trust may be prescribed or varied, in accordance with a scheme approved under this Part.
- (2) Nothing in this section restricts the powers that are or may be conferred on the Court or the trustees by, or under any law of the State.

[Section 8 amended by No. 7 of 1998 s. 6.]

9. Trustees may prepare scheme

- (1) Where the trustees of any property or income to which the provisions of this Part apply wish it to be dealt with in accordance with a scheme approved under this Part, the trustees may prepare, or cause to be prepared, a scheme —

 - (b) if section 7A applies, for the disposition of the property

- and the termination of the trust; or
- (c) if section 7B applies, for the combining, and joint administration and application, of the property and income; or

- (2) Where section 7B applies, the trustees of all of the property and income sought to be combined, and jointly administered and applied, shall jointly prepare, and seek approval for, the scheme.
 - (3) Where the consideration by the Court or the Attorney General, as the case requires, of 2 or more schemes will involve consideration of substantially similar issues, the trustees of all of the property and income concerned may jointly prepare, and seek approval for, the schemes.

[Section 9 inserted by No. 7 of 1998 s. 7.]

10. Scheme to be laid before Attorney General

 - (a) may remit the proposed scheme to the trustees for consideration of any amendments he may suggest; and
 - (b) shall, subject to section 10A(6)(c), report in writing to the trustees on the scheme as finally submitted by the trustees after they have considered any amendments suggested by the Attorney General.
- (1a) The Attorney General may charge the trustees reasonable fees for the costs and expenses (including legal costs and disbursements) incurred by the Attorney General in considering the scheme and preparing a report on it.

[Section 12 amended by No. 67 of 1979 s. 72; No. 7 of 1998 s. 10.]

13. Administration of schemes
