ON PERSONAL INCOME TAX

Assembly of Republic of Kosovo,

In conformity with the Article 65.1 of the Constitution of the Republic of Kosovo,

Adopts:

LAW ON PERSONAL INCOME TAX

CHAPTER I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1
Purpose

This Law sets the system of Personal Income Tax in the territory of the Republic of Kosovo.

Article 2
Definitions

1. Terms used in this Law have the following meaning

1.1 Economic activity - any activity of producers, traders or persons supplying goods or services including mining and agricultural activities and activities of the professions. The exploitation of tangible or intangible property for the purposes of obtaining income there from on a continuing basis shall in particular be regarded as an economic activity;

1.2 Capital Assets - tangible and intangible property that costs more than one thousand (1,000) €, with the time of use of one or more years;

1.3 Intangible property - patents, copyrights, licenses, franchises and other property that consists of rights only, but has no physical form.

1.4 Dividend - a distribution by a company to a shareholder:

1.4.1 Of cash or share with respect to the shareholder's equity interest in the company; and

1.4.2 Of property other than cash or share, unless such property is distributed as a result of liquidation;

1.5 Employee - natural person, who performs work for wages under the direction and control of an employer, regardless of whether the work is performed under a contract, or any other form of agreement, whether in writing or not.

1.6 Self-employed person - any natural person who works for personal gain, in cash or in goods, that is not covered by the definition of an employee under the present law. A self-employed person includes a personal business enterprise and a partner engaged in an economic activity.

1.7 Employer – any person or entity that pays wages among others:

1.7.1 A public authority;

1.7.2 A permanent establishment of a non-resident person;

1.7.3 A non-governmental organization;

1.7.4 An international organization, including KFOR, with the exception of the United Nations, its Specialized Agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency;

1.8 Principal employer - the employer designated by the employee as such at a time and in the manner set out in a sub-legal act issued by the Minister;

1.9 Wages –financial and other kinds of compensation, including goods, bonuses, favors, services, or barter, paid in connection with employment in Kosovo.

1.10 Taxable Wages - wages paid per Article 9.1 of this law, discounting those amounts excluded from gross income from wages per Articles 9.2 and 9.3 of this law.

1.11 Foreign source income - gross income that is not Kosovo source income;

1.12 Kosovo source income - gross income that arises in Kosovo, as follows:

1.12.1 Wages from work performed in Kosovo;

1.12.2 Income from economic activities where such activity is developed in Kosovo;

1.12.3 Income from the use of movable or immovable property in Kosovo;

1.12.4 Income from the use of intangible property in Kosovo;

1.12.5 Interest on a debt obligation paid by a resident or a public authority;

3.2. Category 2: Automobiles and light trucks, heavy transport vehicles, earth moving equipment, bulldozers, scrapers and other heavy vehicles, computers, peripherals and other data processing equipment, office furniture and equipment, instruments, sundries and other accessories; and livestock used for production or breeding.

3.3. Category 3: Plant and machinery; rolling stock and locomotives used for rail transport; airplanes; ships; perennial plants and trees used for viniculture or production of fruits such as apples, pears, walnuts, blueberries, etc.; and all other tangible assets not included in Category 1 or Category 2.

4. The amount allowed as a depreciation deduction for the tax period shall be determined by applying the following percentages individually to the individual tangible property under the straight line method at the close of the tax period according to the category to which the asset belongs:

4.1. Category 1: five percent (5%);

4.2. Category 2: twenty percent (20%); and

4.3. Category 3: ten percent (10%)

5. According to this Article, an asset shall first be taken into account when it is first placed into service.

6. The initial amount to be depreciated shall be the purchase price or, in the absence of a purchase price, the cost price. The initial amount shall also include:

6.1. taxes, duties, levies and charges, and

6.2. incidental expenses such as commission, packing, assembling, transport, and insurance costs charged by the supplier.

7. Individual depreciation of property of Category 2 and Category 3 shall be implemented only for those properties that have been taken in the date or after the date of entering into force of this Law.

8. The purchase of a property for a price of one thousand (1.000) € or less shall be allowed as a current expense.

9. Capital goods (assets) that were purchased and their depreciation has started under the pooling method prior to the entry into force of this Law , shall continue to be depreciated under the previous legislation until the value of the pool equals zero.

10. Tangible assets (property) with the purchase price of more than one thousand (1.000) € and less than three thousand (3.000) €, provided after the date that this Law enters into force, shall be disposed into a one group of assets and depreciated with the twenty percent (20%) rate of the value of the assets in group, not considering that in which category of assets it would be disposed according to the provisions of paragraph 3 of this Article. When the qualified assets are purchased, their purchase price shall be added to the value of group. When the assets are sold by the group, the purchase price of the sold asset will be reported as a usual business income in the year in which the asset has been sold, but the value of group will not be decreased as a result of the sale.

Article 21

Depreciation of Livestock

Depreciation of livestock is allowed only if such animals are used in the course of economic activity. Animals which breed offspring used only for personal use or dairy animals used only for personal use are not subject to depreciation.

Article 22

Special Deduction for New Assets

1. If a taxpayer purchases production lines for plant and machinery, rolling stock and locomotives used for railway transportation, airplanes, ships, heavy transport vehicles, earth moving equipment, bulldozers, scrapers and other heavy vehicles for the purpose of the taxpayer's economic activity between 1 January 2010 and 31 December 2012, a special deduction of ten percent (10%) of the cost of acquisition of the asset shall be deducted in the year in which the asset has been first placed into service.

2. This deduction shall be in addition to the normal allowable depreciation deduction.

3. The deduction shall be allowed only if the asset is new or is placed into service in Kosovo for the first time. A deduction shall not be allowed if the asset is transferred from an existing or a former business in Kosovo.

4. Other special allowances may only be granted if so provided by specific Law.

Article 23

Repairs and Improvements

1. In the case of any depreciable asset, amounts expended for repairs or improvements, excluding repairs of usual maintenance, shall be capitalized and added to the basis of the asset if the repairs or improvements extend the useful life of the asset for at least one (1) year and the amount of repair or improvement is greater than one thousand (1,000) € for that asset. If the repair or improvement is one thousand (1,000) € or less for any asset, the amount of the repair or improvement shall be an expense in the year that it has been paid or occurred.
2. If the repairs or improvements meet the criteria for capitalization according to paragraph 1 of this Article, the amount shall be capitalized and added to the remaining book value of the capital asset. The new book value of the asset will be used as the basis for depreciating the asset. The asset will be depreciated in accordance with the rules of the applicable category.
3. Minister shall issue a sub-legal act for implementation of this Article.

Article 24

Amortization

1. Expenditures on intangible assets that have a limited useful life including, but not limited to patents, copyrights, licenses for drawings and models, contracts and franchises are deductible in the form of amortization charges.
2. The method of amortization shall be the straight-line method and the allowance shall be based on the useful life of the asset as determined by the legal agreement governing the acquisition and use of the intangible asset.

Article 25

Costs for Research and Development

1. All research and development costs in respect of the natural reserves of minerals and other natural resources and interest attributable thereto shall be added to a capital account and amortized under the present Article.
2. The amount allowed as an amortization deduction with respect to the research and development costs referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article for the tax period shall be determined by multiplying the balance in the capital account by a fraction of:

- 2.1. the numerator of which is the units extracted from the natural reserves during the year; and
 - 2.2. the denominator of which is the estimated total units to be extracted from the natural deposit over the life of the asset.
3. The estimated total units to be extracted referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be determined in accordance with instructions concerning such estimates to be set out in a sub-legal act issued by the Minister.

Article 26

Tax Losses

1. A tax loss as defined by this Law is the negative difference between the taxpayer's income and expenses and allowances determined in accordance with this law.
2. The amount of the tax loss determined under the present Article may be carried forward for up to seven (7) successive tax periods and shall be available as a deduction towards any income in those years.
3. The amount of the carry forward taken into account for any tax period after the year of the tax loss shall be the entire amount of the loss, reduced for the aggregate amount previously allowed as a deduction.
4. If a taxpayer has a tax loss in more than one (1) year, the present Article shall be applied to the losses in the order in which they have arisen.
5. The provisions of this Article shall be allowable only to the business which incurred the loss. If the business has an ownership change of more than fifty percent (50%) or if a personal business enterprise is changed in any other form of business (legal entity, partnership, etc.) the loss carried forward shall not be allowed anymore. Minister may issue a sub-legal act in order to regulate the provisions of loss bearing regarding the change of the kind of business organization or the change of ownership, as well as every other necessary provision of loss bearing for the implementation of this Article.

Article 27

Rental Expenses

If a taxpayer, other than a taxpayer engaged in the business of renting movable or immovable property, opts to not maintain records of actual expenses incurred in the rental activity, such taxpayer shall be allowed a deduction from gross income from rent an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the rents received in order to cover the costs of repairs, collection charges and other expenses paid or incurred in generating the rent.

Article 28
Deduction for charitable contributions

1. Contributions made by taxpayers who maintain records under Article 33.4 of this Law for humanitarian, health, education, religious, scientific, cultural, environmental protection and sports purposes are allowed as a deduction up to a maximum of five percent (5%) of taxable income computed before the charitable contribution is deducted.

2. A charitable contribution according to paragraph 1 of this Article must be made to:

2.1. An organization registered under Legislation on registration and operation of non-governmental organizations that has received and maintained public benefit status;

2.2. Any other non-commercial organizations that directly perform not for profit activities in the public interest, such as:

2.2.1. Medical institutions;

2.2.2. Educational institutions;

2.2.3. Organizations to protect the environment;

2.2.4. Religious institutions;

2.2.5. Institutions that care for disabled or elderly persons;

2.2.6 Orphanages; and

2.2.7 Institutions that promote science, culture, sports or arts.

3. A charitable contribution shall not include a contribution that directly benefits the donor, or related persons of the donor.

4. Any taxpayer that is object of real tax, who claims a deduction for a charitable contribution must file an annual declaration and furnish a receipt in respect of such contribution, in the manner prescribed by a sub – legal act issued by the Minister.

Article 29
Educational and Training Expenses

1 .Educational expenses paid by an employer to an educational institution for an employee shall be allowable in full in the year in which such expenses are paid, provided that:

1.1.education expenses are paid directly to the educational institution;

1.2. the educational institution is recognized by effective public Law in Kosovo;

1.3. the education is relevant to the employee's position and does not qualify that employee for work in a different occupation; and

1.4.the employee remains in the employment of the employer for at least twenty-four (24) months after completion of the education for which the expenses were paid by the employer.

2. Training expenses (expenses incurred by an employer to provide basic skills necessary for the employee to perform assigned tasks or necessary to provide updated skills to the employee) which are job-related shall be allowable in full in the year in which such training expenses are incurred. The amount of such expenses shall not exceed one thousand Euros (€1,000) per employee in any tax period. Any training expenses incurred above that amount will not be allowable in that tax period.

CHAPTER V

UNALLOWABLE EXPENSES

Article 30

Unallowable Expenses

1. No deduction shall be allowed for:

1.1. Cost of land acquisition;

1.2. Fines and penalties, and related costs and interest for any violation of law or administrative procedure;

1.3. Income taxes paid or accrued (does not include taxes withheld from employees);

1.4. Value Added Tax for which the taxpayer claims a rebate or credit for deductible tax under the legislation on Value Added Tax;

1.5. Personal, living, or family expenses;

1.6. Any loss from the sale or exchange of property between related persons; and

1.7. Amusement or recreation expenses, unless they are incurred in connection with the taxpayer's business of providing amusement or recreation activities.

1.8. Expenses not documented per requirements set out in a sub-legal act issued by the Minister shall be considered as unallowable expenses.

2. On general income are not included pension contributions, as follows:

2.1. Pension contributions above maximum amount allowed by the Law on Pensions in Kosovo.

2.2. Treatment of expenses which may be partially personal and partially business, or which may be subject to question as to whether they are personal or business, will be defined in a sub-legal act to be issued by the Minister.

CHAPTER VI

CAPITAL GAINS AND LOSSES

Article 31

Incomes from capital gains

1. Gross incomes from capital gains means the gain that a taxpayer realizes through the sale or other disposition of capital assets including real estate and securities.

2. The amount of capital gain is the positive difference between the sales price of the asset and the cost of the capital asset as determined under paragraph 5 of this Article.

3. The sales price of the capital asset shall be the sum of any money received, plus any other compensation received for the sale.

4. If the parties are related persons and the sales price is lower than the open market price, then the sales price will be adjusted to the open market price in the manner prescribed in a sub-legal act issued by the Minister.

5. The cost of the capital asset is the amount that the taxpayer paid for the acquisition of the asset, increased for the cost of improvements and reduced by depreciation and other expenditures allowable by this Law.

6. Capital gains shall be recognized as business income and capital losses as business losses, if not foreseen otherwise by this Law.

7. Capital gains and losses shall not be recognized for pooled asset (asset in Category 2 and Category 3 acquired prior to the date of entry into force of this Law) referred to in Article 20 of this Law.

8. Capital loss means a loss that a taxpayer realizes through the sale or other disposition of capital assets including real estate and securities.

9. The amount of capital loss is the negative difference between the sales price of the asset according to paragraph 3 or 4 of this Article and the cost of the capital asset, according to paragraph 5 of this Article.

10. Capital loss means a loss that a taxpayer realizes through the sale or other disposition of capital assets including real estate and securities. The provisions of Article 26 of this Law shall apply to the losses described in this paragraph.

11. Gross income from capital gains does not include capital gains realized from the sale of the assets of the Kosovo Pension Savings Trust or any other pension fund defined under legislation on Pensions in Kosovo.

12. A capital gain shall not be recognized on the involuntary conversion of property to the extent that the consideration received from the conversion consists of either property of the same character or nature or money that is invested in property of the same character or nature within a replacement period of two (2) years.

13. If a sale of capital assets involves an installment agreement that lasts more than the tax period in which the sale is finalized (all applicable documents are signed by all parties and the sales agreement is legally enforceable), any gain must be amortized on a straight-line basis over the life of the installment agreement and the amount of gain attributable to any tax period must be reported on the tax declaration as income in that tax period. Further provisions related to installment sales shall be described in a sub-legal act.

14. The capital gain shall not be recognized in case of involuntary conversion of property if the consideration is received from the conversion consisting of either property of the same character or nature or money that is invested in property of the same character or nature within the replacement period of two (2) years.

Article 32

Cash and Accrual Method of Accounting

1. Taxpayers not engaged in economic activity shall report the income in accounting on the cash basis. Such income is reported on the actual year or is constructively received in the form of cash, it is equivalent of it or other property.

2. Taxpayers engaged in economic activity with an annual gross income of five thousand (5.000) € or less and the taxpayers with annual gross income from economic activities of more than fifty thousand (50.000) € up to, including, fifty thousand (50.000) €, who are not required and have not opted to keep books and records listed in Article 33.4 of this Law, shall report their various income components in accounting on the cash basis (income reported when actually or constructively received).

3. Taxpayers engaged in economic activity with an annual gross income in excess of fifty thousand (50,000) €, taxpayers who are required to keep the books and records listed in article 33.4 of this Law, and the taxpayers who opt to keep these books and records as well as general and limited partnerships and grouping of persons shall report their various income components on the accrual basis of accounting, except those items of income described in Article 7.1 of this Law.

4. Taxpayers described in paragraph 3 of this Article shall report their various components of expenses on the accrual basis of accounting, except if provided otherwise in paragraph 3 of Article 15 of this Law.

CHAPTER VII

BOOKS AND RECORDS

Article 33

Requirement for Books and Records

1. A taxpayer with annual gross income of more than fifty thousand (50.000) €, from business activities for the tax period, as well as partnerships and groups of persons, shall keep the books and records identified in paragraph 4 of this Article.

2. A taxpayer with annual gross income of fifty thousand (50.000) € or less, from business activities for the tax period may opt to prepare the books and records identified in paragraph 4 of this Article.

3. A taxpayer who opts to prepare books and records identified in paragraph 4 of this Article for any tax period shall be required to prepare such books and records for the tax period in which the option is made plus at least three (3) succeeding tax periods, as provided in a sub-legal act issued by the Minister.

3.1 A taxpayer wishing to opt the option described in paragraph three (3) of this Article shall submit a statement to the tax administration by 1 March of the tax period in which the taxpayer wishes to make the option and that the option is made. The statement to be submitted shall be in a format prescribed by the tax administration. Once such option is made, the taxpayer must continue to prepare financial statements and adjust income and expenses recorded in such statements for the tax period in which the option is made and, at least, for the next succeeding three tax periods as provided in paragraph 3 of this Article.

- 3.2 A taxpayer eligible to opt the maintaining of books and records as required in paragraph 4 of this Article, must submit a request for explanatory ruling to TAK, in accordance with applicable provisions of the Law on Tax Administration and Procedures, and receive approval from TAK before maintaining books and records in accordance with Article 34 of the Law. Approval must be received by 1 March of the year for which the taxpayer requests the explanatory ruling.
4. The books and records required under this Article, maintained in accordance with the Accounting Standards of Kosovo, are as follows:
- 4.1. A sales book in which all sales and returns must be recorded;
 - 4.2. A purchase book in which all purchases and returns must be recorded;
 - 4.3. A Cash receipts diary and a cash payments diary that relate to the sales book and purchase book.
 - 4.4. A capital account, if applicable, that includes the opening balance, additions to capital, expenses to be capitalized, depreciation rate, amount of depreciation, dispositions, and closing balance; and
 - 4.5. Such other books and records as necessary to provide an accurate accounting of all income and expenses so that a correct determination of tax can be made;
 - 4.6. Notwithstanding the requirement in paragraph 1 of this Article that partnerships and groups of persons must maintain the books and records described in Paragraph 4 of this Article, partnerships and groups of persons with annual gross turnover of fifty thousand (50,000) € or less shall not be required to maintain income or financial statements as required by the Accounting Standards of Kosovo. They shall, however, be required to maintain the books and records described in sub-paragraphs 4.1 through 4.5, and any other records required in order to accurately determine the amount of profit, or loss, to be distributed to the separate partners.
 - 4.7. The content of books and records required by this paragraph and any other books or records required, including those maintained in an electronic format, shall be defined in a sub-legal act issued by the Minister.

Article 34

Partnerships and Grouping of Persons

1. Each partnership and grouping of persons that receives or accrues gross income in accordance with the provisions of this Law, shall for personal income tax purposes, submit an annual income tax declaration on or before 31 March of the year following the tax period but will make no payment of income tax liability.
2. The tax declaration shall be made in the form prescribed by the Tax Administration of Kosovo and shall include, inter alia, gross income from all sources, allowable deductions, taxable income and each partner's or member's distributive share, along with their Kosovo fiscal number and their respective addresses. Each partner or group member shall report their distributive share of taxable income in their individual income tax declaration submitted in accordance with Article 48 of this Law.
3. The partnership and grouping of persons shall also submit the quarterly advance payments according to paragraph 2.2 of Article 43 and pay the amount obligatory for each partner or each member of the group in the name of each partner or member, using each partner's or member's fiscal number.
4. Partnerships and grouping of persons, as well as individual partners of partnerships and members of groups, must maintain books and records in accordance with paragraph 4 of Article 33 of this Law and must pay obligatory income taxes in accordance with paragraph 2.2 of Article 43 of this Law.
5. The partnership and grouping of persons is required to withhold tax and pension contributions from the wages of the employees of the partnership or grouping of persons and make payment in accordance with the requirements of this Law.
6. The partnership, or grouping of persons, is responsible for submitting declarations and making payment of all taxes for which the partnership or grouping of persons becomes liable, except for income taxes which are to be declared in accordance with subparagraphs 1 and 2 of this Article.

7. The partnership and grouping of persons shall file all declarations and statements by using the fiscal number assigned by the tax administration.

8. Each partnership and grouping of persons shall appoint one of the general partners or one of the persons belonging to the grouping as representative. This representative shall, on basis of a written authorization provided by all partners or persons belonging to the grouping, act in their name and on their behalf and be authorized to fulfill all tax obligations of the partnership or grouping of persons, including the payment obligations, as defined by Law. However, the assignment of a representative shall not relieve the individual partners or members from their individual liability for their own income taxes or partnership or group debts as provided in the Law on Business Associations, if the partnership fail to meet its fiscal obligations

CHAPTER XI

PAYMENTS, CREDITS, AND DECLARATIONS

Article 43

Payment of tax for economic activities

1. Each taxpayer who receives or accrues income from economic activities shall make quarterly payments of tax to an account designated by the Tax Administration in a bank licensed by the Central Bank of Kosovo no later than fifteen (15) days after the close of each calendar quarter (15 April, 15 July, 15 October, 15 January).

2. The amount of each quarterly payment of tax under paragraph 1 of this Article shall be as follows:

2.1. Taxpayers with annual gross income from business activities of up to fifty thousand (€50.000) € who are not required and do not opt to keep the books and records listed in paragraph 4 of Article 33, must pay:

2.1.1. Three percent (3%) of each quarter's gross income from trade, transport, agriculture and similar economic activities, and but not less than thirty seven euros and fifty cents (€37.50) per quarter.

2.1.2. Five percent (5%) of each quarter's gross income from services, professional, vocational, entertainment and similar activities. but not less than thirty seven euros and fifty cents (€37.50) per quarter.

2.1.3. If a taxpayer described in paragraph 2.1 of this Article has no income in a quarterly period, no payment shall be required, but the taxpayer must submit the quarterly installment declaration for the period with no tax obligation.

2.2 Taxpayers with annual gross income from business activities in excess of fifty thousand (50,000) €; and taxpayers who are required, or opt as provided in paragraph 3 of Article 33, to keep the books and records listed in paragraph 4 of Article 33 must make advance payments:

2.2.1. One-fourth (1/4) of the total tax liability for the current tax period based on estimated taxable income, deducted by any amount of tax withheld pursuant to Article 39 of this Law and Article 30 of the Law on Corporate Income Tax; or

2.2.2. For the second tax period and those subsequent, for which a taxpayer makes payments under this Article, one-fourth (1/4), or more, of one hundred and ten percent (110%) of the total tax liability for the tax period immediately preceding the current tax period, deducted by any amount of tax withheld pursuant to Article 39 of this Law and Article 30 of the Law on Corporate Income Tax.

2.2.3. A taxpayer who has exceeded annual gross income of fifty thousand (50,000) € in any year is required to report income and make payments in accordance with paragraph 2.2 of this Article for the tax period in which annual gross income exceeded fifty thousand (50,000) € and, at least, the three succeeding tax periods. If, after that time, the taxpayer's annual gross income has dropped below the fifty thousand (50,000) € threshold and the taxpayer wishes to return to reporting income and making payments in accordance with sub-paragraph 2.1 of this Article, such taxpayer shall submit a request for ruling to the tax administration in accordance with Article 10 of the Law on Tax Administration and Procedures prior to 1 March of the year in which the change is being requested.

3. If an advance payment is not made timely, or in an amount that is less than that required, the tax administration may impose a penalty in an amount equal to the rate of interest in effect at the time the advance payment was obligatory to be made. There shall be no other additions to tax, for late or inadequate advance payments. If the payments of quarterly installments have been made on or before the due dates, and a final settlement has been made as required by paragraph 4 of Article 38 of this Law, no penalty shall be charged for insufficient payments, if:

3.1. The difference between the amount due in each installment and the amount paid for each installment is not greater than ten percent (10%) of the amount due; or

3.2. After the taxpayer's first tax period, the amount paid in each installment is a minimum of ten percent (10%) at least higher than one-fourth (1/4) of the tax liability on the tax declaration for the preceding tax period.

3.2.1 If the tax administration performs an audit of any year and makes an adjustment to the tax of that year of more than twenty percent (20%), the relief from penalty provided in sub-paragraph 8.2 will not apply to the advance payment requirements for the succeeding tax period.

3.3. For the first tax period during which a taxpayer has been in business (the tax period in which the taxpayer requested a fiscal number, or if taxpayer conducted business prior to that time, the tax period in which economic activity started), there shall be no penalty charged if, including the fourth quarterly installment due on 15 January, the taxpayer has made quarterly advance payments equal to at least ninety percent (90%) of the final tax obligatory for that tax period.

3.4. A taxpayer that had a loss on the previous year Personal Income Tax declaration is not eligible to use the provisions of sub-paragraph 2.2.2 of this Article in making advance payments for the current year. Such taxpayer must make advance payments in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph 2.2.1 of this Article.

3.5. The penalty to be charged under this Article shall be applied only to the underpaid amount from the date of the underpayment until the date described in paragraph 3 of this Article for making the final settlement for the tax period, or, if earlier, the payment date on which the taxpayer's advance payment includes an amount sufficient to pay the advance payment for that quarter plus the underpaid amount.

Article 44

Payment of tax for rents

1. Each taxpayer covered by Article 27 of this law who receives income from rent, except those taxpayers whose economic activity is renting movable or immovable property, shall make quarterly payments of tax to an account designated by the Tax Administration in a bank or financial institution licensed by the Central Bank of Kosovo no later than fifteen (15) days after the close of each calendar quarter (15 April, 15 July, 15 October, 15 January).

2. The amount of each quarterly payment, under paragraph 1 of this Article, shall be ten percent (10%) of the taxable rental income (gross rental income minus ten percent (10%) deduction provided in Article 27 of this Law) received in the calendar quarter immediately preceding the payment date reduced by any amount held during the quarter pursuant to Article 30.2 of the Law on Corporate Income Tax.

Article 45

Payment of tax for intangible property

1. Each taxpayer who receives income from intangible property shall make quarterly payments of tax to an account designated by the Tax Administration in a bank, or financial institution, licensed by the Central Bank of Kosovo no later than fifteen (15) days after the close of each calendar quarter (15 April, 15 July, 15 October, 15 January).

2. The amount of each quarterly payment under paragraph 1 of this Article shall be ten percent (10%) of the taxable income from intangible property received in the calendar quarter immediately preceding the payment date deducted by any amount that was withheld on royalties pursuant to Article 39 of this Law.

Article 46

Payment of tax for other taxable income, including capital gains

1. Each taxpayer who receives taxable income from capital gains or any other source not described in Articles 38 to 43 of this Law shall make payments of tax on or before 31 March of the year following the tax period in accordance with the provisions set out in Article 48 of this Law.

2. Taxpayers who receive taxable gifts according to Article 14 of this Law, must make an advance payment of ten percent (10%) of the amount of the gift which is in excess of five thousand (5,000) € by the last day of the month following the quarter in which the gift is received.

Article 47

Credits against tax

1. Taxpayers may credit against the amount of tax owed under this Law for the taxable year the following amounts:

1.1. Amounts withheld during the same tax period under the provisions of this Law and Article 30.2 of Law on Corporate Income Tax;

1.2. Payments of tax under Articles 42, 43, 44, 45, or 46 of the present Law;

1.3. Income taxes paid to any foreign country as provided in Article 37 of this Law, if the income on which the foreign tax is paid is subject to tax under the present Law. The amount of the foreign tax credit is limited to the amount of tax that would have been paid on such income under the present Law.

Article 48

Tax declarations and payments

1. Except where paragraph 2 of this Article applies, all taxpayers are required to prepare and submit an annual tax declaration on or before 31 March of the year following the tax period. The declaration shall be made on the forms prescribed by the Tax Administration and shall include, inter alia, gross income from all sources, allowable deductions, taxable income, applicable credits, and the tax due pursuant to Article 6 of this Law.

2. Taxpayers who receive or accrue income only from one of the following sources are not required to submit an annual declaration:

2.1. Wages;

2.2. Economic activities where tax is paid under paragraph 2.1 of Article 43 of this Law;

2.3. Rent where full payment has been made according to Article 44 of this Law;

2.4. Interest;

2.5. Lottery winnings, and being subject to Article 49 of this Law, Game of Chance winnings;

2.6. Income from intangible property; or

2.7. Income from gifts

3. Taxpayers who receive or accrue income only from the sources foreseen in paragraph 2 of this Article may opt to prepare and submit an annual declaration on or before 31 March of the year following the tax period. The declaration shall be made on the forms prescribed by the Tax Administration and shall include, inter alia, gross income from all sources, allowable deductions, taxable income and the tax due pursuant to Article 5 of the present Law.

4. Any taxpayer who opts to submit an annual declaration under this Article shall be subject to the requirements established in paragraph 3 of Article 33 of this Law for making and reversing that option. Such taxpayers shall be required to submit annual declarations in the year in which the option is made plus the three succeeding tax periods.

5. Taxpayers who are required to submit an annual tax declaration shall submit, together with such declaration, the final owing amount of tax. The final owing amount of tax shall be the difference between the total tax unpaid for the tax period determined in accordance with the present Law and the total credits in tax under Article 47 of the present Law.

6. If the total of the amount of credits in tax pursuant to Article 47 of the present Law exceeds the total tax unpaid for the tax period, the taxpayer shall be entitled to a refund of the excess tax paid.

7. The location for submitting tax declarations, remitting tax, and claiming refunds shall be specified in a sub-legal act issued by the Minister.

Article 49

Appeals and temporary measures

1. Any person unsatisfied with the decision taken according to the provisions of this Law by the Kosovo Tax Administration has the Right of submitting the request for review in the department of Appeals of the Tax Administration.

1.1. Taxpayers who do not accord with the decision of Department of Complaints may submit the complaint in the Independent Board for Reviews.

1.2. Submission of the Complaint does not suspend the execution of decision issued by Kosovo Tax Administration.

1.3. If a Taxpayer is not satisfied with the decision taken by Independent Board for Reviews, may submit a complaint in the competent Court.

2. The provisions relative to Games of Chance in sub-paragraph 1.8 of Article 7, sub-paragraph 1.13 of Article 8, Article 40, and sub-paragraph 2.5 of Article 48 shall become obsolete and superseded by provisions in the Law on Games of Chance and Lottery (or similar law related to the regulation and taxation of games of chance and lottery) relative to fixed quotes upon its date of entering into force.

3. In accordance with the Law on VAT, a taxpayer must register for VAT when reaching the threshold of fifty thousand (50,000) € of gross turnover in a twelve (12) consecutive month period. The Law on VAT includes provisions under which the registration threshold may be changed with the approval of the Assembly. If the VAT registration threshold is increased or decreased, the threshold for determining personal income tax liability based on an accounting for income and expenses (currently fifty thousand (50,000) € annual turnover) shall be increased or decreased accordingly.

3.1. An increase or decrease in the threshold for determining personal income tax liability shall be reflected in the applicable provisions of Articles 7, 10, 15, 32, 33, 34, and 43 of this Law.

3.2. Any increase or decrease in the personal income tax threshold shall be effective for the tax period beginning on 1 January of the year following the revision of the VAT threshold and each successive tax period thereafter. If the increase in the VAT threshold is effective as of 1 January of a tax period, revision of the personal income tax threshold shall be effective beginning with 1 January of that same tax period.

3.3. Upon an increase or decrease in the threshold approved by the Assembly, the Minister shall issue a sub-legal act to implement the revised threshold level, which will reflect the necessary revisions to Articles 7, 10, 15, 32, 33, 34, and 43 of this Law.

Article 50

Implementation

1. The Minister shall issue the sub-legal acts required by this Law for the implementation of this Law.

Article 51

Applicable Law

This Law shall repeal Law No. 03/L- 115, date 18 December 2008, as well as any other provision that is in contradiction with this Law.

Article 52

Entry into Force

1. This Law shall enter into force fifteen (15) days after the publication in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Kosovo.

2. By the entry into force of this Law, its effects will be from 1 January 2010.

Law No.03/L-161
29 December 2009

The President of the Assembly of Republic of Kosovo

Jakup Krasniqi
