LAW Nr.03/L- 146

ON VALUE ADDED TAX

Assembly of Republic of Kosovo,

In support of Article 65(1) of the Constitution of the Republic of Kosovo,

Approves,

LAW ON VALUE ADDED TAX

CHAPTER I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1
Purpose

This Law establishes the system of Value Added Tax (VAT) in the territory of the Republic of Kosovo.

Article 2
Definitions

1. The terms used in this Law have the following meaning:

1.1. TAK- the Tax Administration of Kosovo.

1.2. VAT- Tax on Added Value includes application of overall tax in consumption for goods and services that is exactly proportional with the cost of goods and services. VAT is calculated in this cost according to the applicable norm, it is loaded in different phases of the production, delivery and living cycle of the trade with goods and services, and in the end it is carried forward from the last consumer.

1.3. Director -General Director of Kosovo Tax Administration.

1.4.The right in rem -essentially it is a right granted by her owner to use and gain benefits (goods) of the immovable property. Forms of rights in rem are usufruct and long term leasing and other similar rights as defined in Kosovo legislation. Mortgages and loads are not considered as right in rem.

1.5.Capital goods - goods likewise equipment and machinery used for the production of other goods and services with a useful service life of one year or more and acquired for a cost price equal to or more than one thousand (1,000) €.

1.6. Tangible property - any property which is not intangible property and shall include:

1.6.1. interest in immovable property,

1.6.2. rights in rem giving the holder of those rights a right of use over immovable property; and

1.6.3. shares or interests equivalent to shares giving the holder de jure or de facto rights of ownership or possession of immovable property or any part of immovable property.

1.7. Intangible property - patents, copyrights, licenses, franchises, and other property that consists of rights only, but are incorporeal.

1.8. Consideration - any act or act of forbearance in respect of a supply of goods or services, and shall include any amount that is payable or goods received in a barter transaction.

1.9. Barter transaction - a transaction that involves two parties, where one party provides for the other party goods, services or asset excluding the cash money, in exchange for the goods, service or mean excluding the cash money.

1.10. Economic activity - any activity of producers, traders or persons supplying goods or services including mining and agricultural activities and activities of the professions. The exploitation of tangible or intangible properties for the purposes of obtaining income therefrom on a continuing basis shall in particular be regarded as an economic activity.

1.11. Employer - any person who pays wages and includes:

1.11.1. A public authority,

1.11.2. A business organization,

1.11.3. A permanent establishment of a non-resident as defined in the Corporate Income Tax legislation,

1.11.4. A non-governmental organization,

1.11.5. An international organization,

1.11.6. A foreign government; and

1.11.7. A physical person who pays wages in the course of carrying on business in Kosovo,

1.12. Employee - a physical person bound to an employer by a contract of employment or by any other legal ties creating the relationship of employer and employee as regards working conditions, remuneration and the employer's liability, regardless of whether the work is performed under a contract, some other commercial agreement, or whether there is a written or an unwritten agreement. An employee includes all public officials and members of executive, representative and judicial bodies.

1.13. Resident in Kosovo – a person that has a business place or a fixed unit, or in a short fall of such business place or a fixed unit, has a place with permanent address or where he usually resides in Kosovo.

1.14. Derogation – for the purpose of implementation of this Law, derogation means non-implementation or exclusion from general or standard rule of this law's provision.

1.15. Rebate – paid reduction for purchasers after the transaction. Examples include total or partly repayment of money from the seller on returned goods or on misfit of the goods quality.

1.16. Reductions (Sales) – reduction from the list or the cost of advertised good or service that is available for buyers in specific conditions. Examples include reduction of cash money, reduction for quick payments, reductions in volume, trade discounts.

1.17. Fiscal Electronic Device (FED) - for the purpose of this Law term "Fiscal Electronic Device" includes electronic devices such as fiscal cash registers and electronic devices on the sales points which shall be licensed and authorized from authorized bodies of the Ministry of Finances in order to be recognized as fiscal. These devices use electronic developed memories integrated in cash registers or developed systems with computer basis for registering the selling transactions, their printings through fiscal printers and their certification through fiscal electronic devices for endorsement and similar devices. Fiscal Electronic Device is used for issuance of fiscal vouchers for the incomes. Issuance of vouchers for incomes does not depend on the payment manner (payment with cash money, payment with credit card or any equivalent payment instrument ex. payment with cheque).

1.18. Reimbursement for returned good - for the purpose of this law means reimbursement of the total or partly selling cost of a good, which is returned when the selling cost is registered in Fiscal Electronic Device in compliance with this Law.

1.19. Cash Back - bank instrument through which the client after purchasing the goods uses debit card to pay the bought goods and at the same time withdraws cash money from his account through the cashier. These two actions are done with a card payment

1.20. Output tax - VAT on supplies which a taxable person makes or goods a taxable person exports.

1.21. Input tax- means:

1.21.1. VAT due from or paid by a taxable person in respect of goods or services supplied or to be supplied to him by another taxable person; and

1.21.2. VAT due from or paid by a taxable person in respect of imported goods.

1.22. Taxable supply - any supply of goods or services made in the furtherance of any economic activity developed in Kosovo, other than an exempt supply.

1.23. Exempt supply and exempted supply - any supply of goods or services made in the furtherance of any economic activity carried on in Kosovo, for which the taxable person – supplier is not entitled to charge VAT to the customer,

1.24. Entity :

1.24.1. A corporation or other business organization that has the status of a legal person as defined by the Law on Business Organizations;

1.24.2. A business organization operating with publicly and socially owned assets,

1.24.3. A non-governmental organization; and

1.24.4. A permanent establishment of a non-resident.

The term entity does not include a personal business enterprise or a partnership.

1.25. Person - a physical person, a legal person or an entity and shall, for the purposes of VAT, include a partnership and a grouping of persons.

1.26. Legal person - a corporation or other business organization that has the status of a legal person under the Law on Business Organizations and other legislation applicable in Kosovo.

1.27. Partnership- a general partnership and a limited partnership that is not a legal person under the Law on Business Organizations and that normally proportionately shares items of capital, income, profit and loss among its partners.

1.28. Non-governmental organization - any foundation, association or organization registered as a non-governmental organization under legislation regulating the registration and operation of Non-Governmental Organizations in Kosovo.

1.29. Grouping of persons for VAT purposes - an association of persons set up for a common purpose to develop a special economic activity, including consortiums but excluding partnerships.

1.30. Chargeable event of VAT - the occurrence through which the legal conditions necessary for VAT to become chargeable are fulfilled.

1.31. Chargeability of VAT - when the TAK becomes entitled under this Law, at a given moment, to claim VAT from the person liable to pay, even though the time of payment may be deferred.

1.32. Tax invoice - an invoice or any other document required by Chapter 15 of this Law to be issued by a taxable and non-taxable person in connection with the supply of goods and services.

1.33. Credit note - a document issued by a taxable person to a recipient of goods or services after a tax invoice or a document serving as an invoice has been issued, for the purposes of an adjustment, where the amount of VAT charged on the tax invoice or a document serving as an invoice exceeds the actual VAT due for that taxable supply.

1.34. Debit note - a document issued by a taxable person to a recipient of goods or services after a tax invoice or a document serving as an invoice has been issued, for the purposes of an adjustment, where the amount of VAT charged on the tax invoice or a document serving as an invoice is less than the actual VAT due for that taxable supply.

1.35. Fiscal receipt, Coupon - a document that has some, but not all, of the attributes of an invoice referred to in Chapter 15 of this Law and therefore cannot be used as evidence of entitlement to deduct input VAT referred to in Chapter 13 of this Law,

1.36. Export and exportation - goods going out of Kosovo.

For the purposes of the present law, the placing of goods into a free zone or customs procedures or arrangement having the same effect also means export,

1.37. Import, imported and importation – goods entering within Kosovo. For the purpose of this law import also means placement of goods on free movement from free zone in Kosovo or customs procedure or arrangements that have the same effect.

1.38. Single Administrative Document - a document as determined by Customs legislation in force which is used within the framework of trade of goods with third countries including Customs procedures connected to such trade.

Customs procedure, Customs arrangements, customs warehouses and other Customs terminology such as free zone, temporary storage, suspension regimes, inward and outward processing, reimportation, international transport and others have the meaning given by the Customs legislation in force.

1.39. Turnover or Total supplies - the supplies made by a person and includes the taxable and exempt supplies as defined by this Law.

1.40. Flat Rate scheme for farmers - a taxation scheme tending to offset the value added tax charged on purchases of goods and services made by the flat rate farmers through adding an additional amount on the price of the supplies made by such farmers to their purchasers-taxable persons. That additional amount is calculated as a percentage of the price and is called flat rate percentage which varies according to the category of farming activity. The flat-rate percentages are defined on basis of relevant macro-economic statistical data which allow to calculate the compensation of input VAT on the purchases made by flat-rate farmers.

1.41. Flat-rate farmer - a farmer subject to the flat-rate scheme as referred to in Article 60 of this Law.

1.42. Kosovo – The Republic of Kosovo.

1.43. Independent Review Board- means the Board established under the Law on Tax Administration and Procedures, to hear tax appeals from taxpayers.

Article 3

Object of Taxation

1. VAT shall be charged in accordance with the provisions of the present Law, on:
 - 1.1. supply of goods and services made for consideration within the territory of Kosovo by a taxable person as meant by Article 4 of this Law and acting as such, and
 - 1.2. the importation of goods in Kosovo.
2. VAT on importation shall be charged and payable in accordance with the arrangements for Customs duties.

CHAPTER II

TAXABLE PERSONS

Article 4

Taxable persons

1. Taxable person is any person who is, or is required to be registered for VAT, and who in Kosovo independently carries out any economic activity in a regular or non-regular manner, whatever the purpose or results of that economic activity.

Any activity of producers, traders or persons supplying goods and services, including mining and agricultural activities of the professions, shall be regarded as “economic activity”. The exploitation of tangible or intangible property for the purposes of obtaining income therefrom on a continuing basis shall in particular be regarded as an economic activity.
2. In paragraph 1 of this Article, the meaning of the term “independently” excludes employed and other persons from VAT in so far as they are bound to an employer by a contract of employment or by any legal ties creating the relationship of employer and employee as regards working conditions, remuneration and the employer’s liability.
3. Authorities of Central and local level and other bodies regulated by Law shall not be regarded as taxable persons in respect of the activities or transactions in which they engage as public authorities, even where they collect duties, fees, contributions or payments in connection with those activities or transactions. However, when they engage in the activities or transactions as defined in Annex 1 to this Law, they shall be regarded as taxable persons in respect of these activities or transactions provided that those activities are not carried out on such a small scale as to be negligible or if carried out by natural or legal persons, where such persons would not have been obliged to register for VAT purposes as referred to in Article 6 of this Law.

4. Bodies of International organizations and foreign countries and their agencies shall not be regarded as taxable persons in respect of the activities or transactions similar or identical to those mentioned in paragraph 3 of this Article, even if they receive payments in connection with those activities. However, agencies of foreign countries shall be regarded as taxable persons in respect of those activities or transactions where their treatment in their own country would result in considering those activities as being carried out by a taxable person.

Article 5

Certification for import and export

1. Every person involved in economic activities, shall prior to making his first export or import, notify TAK in advance of such activity and request certification for this activity.
2. TAK will determine the procedure and the conditions for obtaining such certification.

Article 6

General provisions in respect of Requirement to be registered and issuance of registration certificate

1. Every person who meets all conditions of the definition of taxable person referred to in Article 4 of this Law, is required to register for VAT from the moment when total supplies in the previous twelve (12) month period, exceeds a threshold of fifty thousand (50,000)€. The month in which the threshold is exceeded counts for the twelve (12) months period calculation. Only that proportion of the supply which results in surpassing the threshold will be taken into consideration for purposes of VAT.
2. When a person is registered for VAT purposes, TAK shall issue such taxable person with a registration certificate containing his name, his fiscal number and unique VAT registration number taxpayer and address or addresses where that person carries on business activity. The original, respectively a certified copy of the registration certificate shall be displayed at each place of business activity so that it can be easily seen and read by the public. The form of the registration certificate shall be provided by TAK.
3. A physical person conducting the same or different economic activities and has several places of economic activity within Kosovo, shall be identified by one individual and unique VAT registration number for the purposes of this Law. Where a physical person got registered for VAT purposes under his personal identification number, TAK shall issue to such person one registration certificate as meant by paragraph 2 of this Article, containing his name, his fiscal number and unique VAT registration number and the address or addresses of the places where that person carries on business.
4. A partnership and grouping of persons shall be identified by one single VAT registration number for the purposes of this Law. A general partner-representative, respectively member-representative shall be appointed by the partners or members for fulfilling the obligations and exercising the rights defined by this Law. Where the partners and members are not yet registered for VAT purposes, they may opt for being registered for these purposes prior to the registration of the partnership or grouping of persons.

5. The persons not established in Kosovo are subject to VAT registration, from the beginning of their economic activity in Kosovo, regardless of the threshold defined in paragraph 1 of this article. Such taxable persons not established in Kosovo shall appoint a tax representative as referred to in paragraph 5 of Article 52 of this Law except for those cases mentioned under sub-paragraph 4 of Article 52 of this Law. The taxable person shall be registered under his own name and the name of his tax representative within five (5) days after the appointment as tax representative and prior to the starting of economic activity in Kosovo.

6. TAK shall treat any person carrying on the economic activity of a taxable person who dies or becomes bankrupt or incapacitated as if he were registered for VAT purposes from the date on which the taxable person died or became bankrupt or incapacitated until some other person is registered.

Article 7

Compulsory Registration – Compulsory communication of changes in registration data

1. Every person, except otherwise provided in this Law, is obliged to register upon reaching the threshold referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 6 of this Law and shall notify the TAK within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date that the registration obligation arises. The registration has effect from the date that the threshold is exceeded.

2. Every person who has not notified and has not been registered in due time shall be registered in a compulsory way by TAK with retroactive effect as of the date of exceeding the threshold as defined in paragraph 1 of Article 6 above.

Article 8

Voluntary Registration

1. Every person meeting the conditions of Article 4 of this Law, but not fulfilling the registration requirement referred to in Article 6 of this Law, has the right to exercise the option for being registered and shall notify TAK accordingly.

2. TAK shall register such person with effect from the date of receiving the request if the person making the request meets the conditions of Article 4 of this Law.

3. Voluntary registered taxpayers are subject to the same rules in respect of change and cessation of activity as other registered taxable persons in accordance with Article 6 of this Law.

Article 9

Cancellation of registration

1. Every registered taxable person may request that TAK cancel his registration for VAT purposes if his total supplies over the last twelve (12) calendar months, has fallen below the threshold referred to in Article 6 of this Law. The cancellation has effect twelve (12) months after the date of the submission of the request.

2. Every registered taxable person is obliged to require the cancellation from the moment of ceasing his activity. He shall notify TAK within fifteen (15) days after the cessation of his activity. Such cancellation has effect from the date of notification of the cessation of activity.

3. TAK may cancel the registration of a taxable person registered for VAT purposes where such person fails to comply with the provisions of this Law. TAK shall notify the person of the decision and provide the reasons for the decision.

4. The Minister of Economy and Finance shall issue a sub-legal act to determine the procedures in respect of the implementation of the articles 7, 8 and 9 of this Law. This sub-legal act shall also provide specific threshold calculation rules for categories of persons whose turnover is for the majority composed of exempt supplies.

CHAPTER III

TAXABLE TRANSACTIONS

Article 10

Supply of goods

1. Supply of goods means the transfer of the right to dispose of tangible property as owner.

2. In addition to the transaction referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article, each of the following shall be regarded as a supply of goods:

2.1. The transfer of the ownership of property against payment of compensation:

2.1.1. By order made by a public Authority, or

2.1.2. In the name of a public authority, or

2.1.3.Pursuant to the provisions of the Law,

2.2.The actual handing over of goods pursuant to a contract for the hire of goods for a certain period, or for the sale of goods on deferred terms, which provides that in the normal course of events ownership is to pass at the latest upon payment of the final instalment.

Article 11

Application of goods of the business for non-business needs

1. The application by a taxable person of goods forming part of his business assets for his private use or for that of his staff, or their disposal free of charge or, more generally, their application for purposes other than those of his business, shall be treated as a supply of goods for consideration, where the VAT on those goods or the component parts thereof was wholly or partly deductible.

2. The application of goods for business use as samples or as gifts of small value shall not be treated as a supply of goods for consideration.

3. The Minister of Economy and Finance shall issue a sub-legal act for implementation of this Article.

Article 12

Application of goods for business needs under certain VAT deduction circumstances

1. The application by a taxable person for the purposes of his business of goods produced, constructed, extracted, processed, purchased or imported in the course of such business, where the VAT on such goods, had they been acquired from another taxable person, would not be wholly deductible, are considered as a supply of goods for consideration.

2. The application of goods by a taxable person for the purposes of a non-taxable area of activity, where the VAT on such goods became wholly or partly deductible upon their acquisition or upon their application in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article, are considered as a supply of goods for consideration.

3. With the exception of the cases referred to in Article 13 of this Law, the retention of goods by a taxable person, or by his successors, when he ceases to carry out a taxable economic activity, where the VAT on such goods became wholly or partly deductible upon their acquisition or upon their application in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article, are also considered as a supply of goods for consideration.

Article 13

Transfer of business

1. No supply of goods takes place in the event of a transfer by a taxable person whether for consideration or not or as a contribution to a company, of a totality of assets or part of them.

2. The person to whom the goods are transferred is to be treated as the successor to the transferor and no VAT shall be charged on such transfer provided that the successor to the transferor is a taxable person who is registered or required to register for VAT purposes. The transferor and the transferee shall notify TAK of their intention to implement this Article at least thirty days before the transfer will occur.

3. Any outstanding liability and outstanding right of the transferor provided by, or by virtue of this law before the time of the transfer, become the liability and right of the transferee.

4. All information, books and records relating to the transferred business which are required to be kept by the current VAT law or previous VAT Law or Regulations, shall be kept by the transferee instead of the transferor unless the Director, at the request of the transferor, otherwise directs.

5. The Minister of Economy and Finance shall issue a sub-legal act providing the procedure and rules for applying this Article.

Article 14

Supply of services

1. Supply of services is any transaction which does not constitute a supply of goods.

2. A supply of services may consist, inter alia, in one of the following transactions:
 - 2.1.The assignment of intangible property, whether or not the subject of a document establishing title of ownership,
 - 2.2.The obligation to refrain from an act, or to tolerate an act or situation,
 - 2.3.The performance of services in dependence to :
 - 2.3.1.An order made by a public authority;
 - 2.3.2.In the name of a public authority ; or
 - 2.3.3.In pursuance of the Kosovo Laws.
3. The supply of services for sewerage, offscourings and soil disposal by the municipal and public bodies for consideration.

Article 15
The use of business goods for non-business needs

1. The use of goods forming part of the assets of a business for the private use of a taxable person or of his staff or, more generally, for purposes other than those of his business, where the VAT on such goods was wholly or partly deductible, shall be treated as a supply for consideration.
2. The supply of services carried out without consideration by a taxable person for his private use or for that of his staff or, more generally, for purposes other than those of his business, shall also be treated as a supply for consideration.

Article 16
The use of self-supplied services for business needs

1. The supply of a service by a taxable person for the purposes of his business, where the VAT on such a service if supplied by another taxable person would not be wholly deductible, shall be considered as a supply of a service for consideration.
2. Construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance and cleaning work with respect of immovable property used or to be used for existing or future economic activity and rendered for free by a taxable person or his staff to himself, shall be treated as a supply of services for consideration.

Article 17
Services in respect of transfer of business

The provisions of Article 13 of this Law shall also apply to the supply of services in respect of transfer of business by replacing supply of goods with supply of services.

Article 18
The supply of services in his own name but on behalf of another person

Where a taxable person acting in his own name but on behalf of another person, takes part in a supply of services, he shall be deemed having received and supplied those services himself.

CHAPTER IV
PLACE OF TAXABLE TRANSACTIONS

Article 19
Place of supply of goods

1. Supply of goods without transport. Where goods are not dispatched or transported, the place of supply is deemed to be the place where the goods are located at the time when the supply takes place.

2. Supply of goods with transport:

2.1. Where goods are dispatched or transported by the supplier, or by the customer, or by a third person, the place of supply shall be deemed to be the place where the goods are located at the time when dispatch or transport of the goods to the customer begins.

2.2. Where goods dispatched or transported by the supplier, by the customer or by a third person are installed or assembled, with or without a trial run, by or on behalf of the supplier, the place of supply shall be deemed to be the place where the goods are installed or assembled.

3. Supply of goods on board ships, aircraft or trains:

3.1. Where goods are supplied on board ships, aircraft or trains during the section of a passenger transport operation effected within Kosovo, the place of supply shall be deemed to be at the point of departure of the passenger transport operation.

3.2. In the case of a trip beginning in Kosovo, going to a place outside of Kosovo and then returning to Kosovo, only that part of the trip from Kosovo to that place outside of Kosovo shall be deemed to have taken place at the point of departure in Kosovo.

3.3. In the case of a return trip, the return leg shall be regarded as a separate transport operation.

4. Supply of natural gas and electricity through distribution systems:

4.1. In the case of the supply of gas through the natural gas distribution system, or of electricity, to a taxable dealer, the place of supply shall be deemed to be the place where that taxable dealer has established his business or has a fixed establishment for which the goods are supplied, or, in the absence of such a place of business or fixed establishment, the place where he has his permanent address or usually resides. For the purposes of this paragraph, “taxable dealer” means a taxable person whose principal activity in respect of purchases of gas or electricity is reselling those products and whose own consumption of those products is negligible.

4.2. In the case of the supply of gas through the natural gas distribution system, or of electricity, where such a supply is not covered by sub-paragraph 1 of paragraph 4 of this Article, the place of supply shall be deemed to be the place where the customer effectively uses and consumes the goods.

4.3. Where all or part of the gas or electricity is not effectively consumed by the customer, those non-consumed goods shall be deemed to have been used and consumed at the place where the customer has established his business or has a fixed establishment for which the goods are supplied. In the absence of such a place of business or fixed establishment, the customer shall be deemed to have used and consumed the goods at the place where he has his permanent address or usually resides.

Article 20

CHAPTER VI

TAXABLE AMOUNT

Article 24

Taxable amount in respect of supply of goods and services

1. General rule:

- 1.1. In respect of the supply of goods or services, other than as referred to in the paragraphs 2 and 3 of this Article, the taxable amount shall include everything which constitutes consideration obtained or to be obtained by the supplier, in return for the supply, from the customer or a third party, including subsidies directly linked to the price of the supply;
 - 1.2. if the supply is for a consideration in money, its value shall be taken to be such amount as is equal to the consideration;
 - 1.3. If the supply is for a consideration not consisting or not wholly consisting of money, its value shall be taken to the open market value of the supply.
2. For the purpose of this Law “open market value” shall mean the full amount that, in order to obtain the goods or services in question at that time, a customer at the same market level at which the supply of goods or services takes place, would have to pay, under conditions of fair competition, to a supplier at arm’s length within Kosovo in which the supply takes place.
3. Where no comparable supply of goods or services can be ascertained, “open market value” shall mean the following:
 - 3.1. In respect of goods, an amount that is no less than the purchase price of the goods or of similar goods or, in the absence of a purchase price, the cost price, determined at the time of the supply;
 - 3.2. In respect of services, an amount that is not less than the full cost to the taxable person of providing the service.
4. The taxable amount includes the following factors:
 - 4.1. Taxes, duties, levies and charges, excluding the VAT itself,
 - 4.2. Incidental expenses, such as commission, packing, transport and insurance costs, charged by the supplier to the customer.
 - 4.3. For the purposes of sub-paragraph 2 of paragraph 4 of this Article, incidental expenses may be covered by a separate agreement.
5. Returnable packing costs are excluded from the taxable amount but this amount shall be adjusted if the packing is not returned.
6. The taxable amount shall not include the following factors:
 - 6.1. Price reductions by way of discount of early payment,

6.2.Price discounts and rebates granted to the customer and obtained by him at the time of the supply,

6.3.Amounts received by a taxable person from the customer, as repayment of expenditure incurred in the name and on behalf of the customer, and entered in his books in a suspense account.

7. Special rules:

7.1.Where a taxable person applies or disposes of goods forming part of his business assets, or where goods are retained by a taxable person, or by his successors, when his taxable economic activity ceases, as referred to in Articles 11 and 12 of this Law the taxable amount shall be the purchase price of the goods or of similar goods or, in the absence of a purchase price, the cost price, determined at the time when the application, disposal or retention takes place.

7.2.In respect of the supply of services, as referred to in Article 15 where goods forming part of the assets of a business are used for private purposes or services are carried out free of charge and paragraph 2 of Article 16 with respect of certain self-supplied services, the taxable amount shall be the full cost to the taxable person of providing the services.

7.3.In respect of the supply by a taxable person of a service for the purposes of his business, as referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 16 of this Law, the taxable amount shall be the open market value of the service supplied.

8. Measures to avoid tax evasion or tax avoidance:

To prevent tax evasion or avoidance, the taxable amount is to be the open market value in any of the following cases in respect of the supply of goods and services involving family or other close personal ties, management, ownership, membership, financial or legal ties:

8.1.Where the consideration is lower than the open market value and the recipient of the supply does not have a full right of deduction under article 36 of this Law;

8.2.Where the consideration is lower than the open market value and the supplier does not have a full right of deduction under article 36 of this Law and the supply is an exempt supply as referred to in paragraph 1 of article 27 and paragraphs 1 and 3 of article 28 of this Law.

8.3.Where the consideration is higher than the open market value and the “supplier” does not have a full right of deduction under article 36 of this Law.

9.The Minister of Economy and Finance shall issue a sub-legal act for the implementation of this article. This act shall in particular include the proof required from the taxable person of the actual amount of the repaid expenditure referred to subparagraph 3 of paragraph 6 of Article 24 of this Law.

Article 25

Taxable amount in respect of importation of goods. Converting the value of foreign currency into Euro

1. The taxable amount in respect of importation of goods:

1.1. In respect of the importation of goods, the taxable amount shall be the value for customs purposes, determined in accordance with the Customs legislation in force in Kosovo.

1.2. The taxable amount shall include the following factors, in so far as they are not already included:

1.2.1. Taxes, duties, levies and other charges due outside Kosovo, and those due by reason of importation, excluding the VAT to be levied,

1.2.2. Incidental expenses, such as commission, packing, transport and insurance costs, incurred up to the first place of destination within the territory of Kosovo as well as those resulting from transport to another place of destination within Kosovo if that other place is known when the chargeable event occurs.

1.2.3. For the purposes of 1.2.2. of this Article, "first place of destination" means the place mentioned on the consignment note or on any other document under which the goods are imported into Kosovo. If no such mention is made, the first place of destination shall be deemed to be the place of the first transfer of cargo in Kosovo.

1.3. The taxable amount shall not include the following factors:

1.3.1. Price reductions by way of discount for early payment,

1.3.2. Price discounts and rebates granted to the customer and obtained by him at the time of importation.

1.4. Where goods temporarily exported from Kosovo, are re-imported in Kosovo after having undergone outside Kosovo, repair, processing, adaptation, making up or re-working outside of Kosovo, the taxable amount shall be the value of the repair, processing adaptation, making up or re-working, as determined in accordance with the Customs legislation.

2.The Conversion of foreign currency into Euro:

2.1.Where the value and factors used to determine the taxable amount on importation are expressed in a foreign currency, the conversion of this amount into euro shall be made by applying the exchange rate determined in accordance with the Customs regulations governing the calculation of the value for customs purposes.

2.2.Where the value and factors used to determine the taxable amount of a transaction other than the importation of goods are expressed in a foreign currency, the conversion of this amount into the domestic currency Euro shall be the latest selling rate as defined by the Central Bank of Kosovo recorded at the time VAT becomes chargeable.

CHAPTER VII

RATES

Article 26 The Rate

1. Standard rate:

1.1.The VAT is charged at the rate of sixteen percent (16%).

2.The Minister of Economy and Finance may, upon decision of the Government of Kosovo after the approval of the Assembly, issue a sub-legal act for introducing a reduced rate not lower than five percent (5 %) for designated supplies of goods and services. Subject to the same procedure and as deemed necessary, the Minister may also introduce a temporary higher rate of VAT not higher than twenty-one (21 %) to be applied against designated supplies of goods and services. The reduced and increased rates may only apply to supplies of goods and services as listed in Annex III.

1.6.The supply, modification, repair, maintenance, chartering and hiring of the aircraft referred to in sub-paragraph 1.5 of this Article, and the supply, hiring, repair and maintenance of equipment incorporated or used therein,

2. The supply of services, other than those referred to in sub-paragraph 6 of paragraph 1 of this Article, to meet the direct needs of the aircraft referred to in sub-paragraph 5 of paragraph 1 of this article or of their cargoes.

CHAPTER XII

EXEMPTIONS RELATING TO CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS TREATED AS EXPORTS, EXEMPTIONS FOR THE SUPPLY OF SERVICES BY INTERMEDIARIES, AND EXEMPTIONS RELATING TO CUSTOMS AND SIMILAR ARRANGEMENTS

Article 33

Exemptions relating to certain transactions treated as exports

1.The following transactions treated as exports are exempted:

1.1.the supply of goods or services under diplomatic and consular arrangements;

1.2.The supply of goods or services to international and inter-governmental bodies recognised as such by the public authorities of Kosovo, and to the members of such bodies, within the limits and under the conditions laid down by the international conventions establishing the bodies or by the competent Authority;

1.3.the supply of goods or services to NATO and KFOR, intended either for the armed forces of NATO and KFOR for the use of those forces, or the civilian staff accompanying them, or for their messes or canteens when such forces take part in the common defence and peace keeping effort;

1.4.The supply of gold to the Central Bank of Kosovo.

2. The irrigation of faring land and the supplies of the goods liste in the Annex IV of this Law are exempted during the transitional period referred to in Article 64 of this Law.

3. Special exemptions which apply during the transitional period referred to in Article 64 of this Law.

3.1.The supply of goods or services funded from the proceeds of grants made to the budget or through the budget of Kosovo or under the supervision of competent bodies or directly financed by contracts for the benefit of Ministries, local authorithies and other bodies governed by law, by international inter-governmental organizations and their agencies, by governments, government agencies, governmental or non-governmental organizations in support of humanitarian and reconstruction programs and other projects including European integration projects in Kosovo;

3.2.Supplies of goods and services made to the United Nations or any of its agencies, the World Bank and international inter-governmental organizations.

4. In cases where the goods are dispatched or transported out of Kosovo in which the supply takes place, and in the case of services, the exemption may be granted by means of a refund of the VAT.

Article 34

Exemptions for the supply of services by intermediaries

The supply of services by intermediaries acting in the name and on behalf of another person, where they take part in the transactions referred to in Chapters 10 and 11 and the transactions treated as exports of this Chapter 12, or of transactions carried out outside of Kosovo.

Article 35

Customs warehouses and similar arrangements

1. Imports of goods shall be exempt from VAT if they are intended to be:

1.1.Presented to customs and, when allowed under custom legislation, placed in temporary strage;

1.2.Placed into a free zone;

1.3.Placed under customs warehousing arrangements or inward processing arrangements under suspension regime.

2. Exemption is also applicable to the supplies of services relating to the supplies of goods under paragraph 1 of Article 35 of this Law and to the supplies of goods and services carried out in free zones and customs warehouses.

3. Transactions under this paragraph 1 of Article 35 are exempt from VAT provided that goods are not released for free circulation or are not aimed at final consumption and that the amount of VAT due on cessation of the arrangements corresponds to the amount of VAT which would have been due had each of these transactions been taxed within Kosovo.

4. Goods intended for sale in “duty free shops” at an airport open to international air traffic or a port open to international traffic, are also exempt from VAT, on condition that travellers carry such goods as personal luggage in permitted quantities to another country by aircraft or ship.

A traveller referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article is deemed to be a traveller who has a ticket on which the destination airport or port of another country is stated.

5. Goods intended for sale to travellers on board of an aircraft in the course of a flight are exempt where the place of arrival is situated outside of Kosovo.

CHAPTER XIII

DEDUCTIONS

Article 36

The right to deduct VAT

1.The right to deduct input VAT shall arise at the time when the VAT becomes chargeable.

A taxable person cannot deduct input VAT before the tax period in which he received invoices for goods or services supplied to him or in which he received customs declarations for imported goods.

2. Unless otherwise stipulated by this Law, a taxable person may deduct from his VAT liability, the VAT due or VAT paid in respect of purchases of goods or services - hereinafter indicated as input VAT - provided he used or will use such goods or services for the purposes of his taxable transactions:

2.1.The input VAT due or paid within the territory of Kosovo in respect of goods or services supplied or to be supplied to him by another taxable person;

- 2.2.The input VAT due or paid within the territory of Kosovo in respect of importation of goods;
- 2.3.The input VAT due in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 12 and Article 16 of this Law.
3. In addition to the deduction referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, every taxable person shall also have the right to deduct the input VAT referred to therein in so far as the goods and services are used for the purposes of the following:
- 3.1.Transactions relating to the activity from paragraph 1 of Article 4 of this Law carried out outside Kosovo in which that tax is due or paid, in respect of which VAT would be deductible if they had been carried out in Kosovo;
- 3.2.Transactions which are exempt pursuant to Chapter 10 (Exemptions on exportation), Chapter 11 (Exemptions related to international transport) and Chapter 12 (Exemptions relating to transactions treated as exports, supply of services by intermediaries and exemptions relating to Customs and similar arrangements) of this Law.
- 3.3.Any of the transactions exempt in accordance with sub-paragraph 1 till 6 of paragraph 1 of Article 28 of this Law, if the customer is established outside Kosovo or if such transactions are directly linked to goods intended for export to a country outside Kosovo.
4. As regards goods and services used or to be used by a taxable person both for transactions covered by the paragraphs 2 and 3 of Article 36 of this law which VAT may be deducted, and for transactions, for which VAT shall not be deducted, only such a proportion of the VAT may be deducted as is attributable to the first transactions. Such proportion of input VAT shall be determined in accordance with Article 39 of this Law for all transactions carried out by the taxable person.
5. A taxable person shall not deduct input VAT on:
- 5.1.Yachts and boats intended for sport and recreation, private aircraft, cars and motorcycles only used for non business purposes, fuels and lubricants and spare parts and services closely linked thereto, other than vessels or vehicles used for leasing and renting and for resale, and vehicles used in driving schools for the provision of the driver's training programme in accordance with the regulations in force and combined vehicles for carrying out an activity of a public line and special line transport. If a vehicle is not used exclusively for carrying out an activity of a public and special line transport, a taxable person can claim a VAT deduction only in the part, related to carrying out of this activity;

5.2. The total purchase costs and current expenditures as regards cars used for both private and business purposes. In such case, the right to deduct input VAT is only allowed to a maximum of fifty percent (50%);

5.3. Costs for representation which shall include only costs for entertainment and amusement during business or social contacts, food costs including drinks and accommodation costs exception made for those costs which are made for the personnel charged with supply of goods and services;

4. The Minister of Economy and Finance shall issue a sub-legal act to determine the implementation and the costs which are subject to restrictions.

Article 37

Exercise of the right of deduction

The right of deduction arises at the time the deductible tax becomes chargeable.

2. To exercise his right to deduct input VAT, a taxable person must at least:

2.1. In respect of all deductions referred to in Chapter 13, hold an invoice or a document serving as an invoice in accordance with Chapter 15 of this Law. In respect of deductions pursuant to sub-paragraph 2.2 of article 36 of this Law, hold an import document "SAD document" on which he is stated as the consignee or importer and which states the amount or enables calculation of the amount of tax due,

3. The Minister of Economy and Finance shall issue a sub-legal act to determine additional rules and documents for proving the input VAT, in particular in respect of:

3.1. The deductions of sub-paragraph 2.3 of Article 36 of this Law;

3.2. The deductions pursuant to sub-paragraphs 2.1 and 2.2 of Article 37 of this Law;

3.3. The deductions related to the transactions described in the Chapters 10, 11 and 12 of this Law;

3.4. The cases referred to in Article 53 of this Law where a person is liable to pay VAT as a customer or purchaser;

3.5. The deductions in respect of the application of the special schemes of Chapter 19 of this Law.

Article 38
The manner to exercise the right to deduct input VAT

1. Taxable persons shall effect the deduction by subtracting from the total amount of VAT due for a given tax period the total amount of VAT in respect of which, during the same period, the right to deduct has arisen in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 37 of this Law.
2. If a taxable person does not deduct input VAT in this tax period, he may deduct this amount of input VAT at any time after this tax period, but not later than in the last tax period of the calendar year following the year in which he was entitled to deduct input VAT. The taxable person shall notify in advance the Head of the Regional Tax Office of such late deduction.
3. If a taxable person receives an invoice showing VAT from a person who is not entitled to claim VAT under this Law, he shall not deduct the VAT shown as input VAT, irrespective of whether he pays that VAT.
4. If a taxable person receives an invoice showing an amount of VAT which exceeds the amount of VAT that should be charged according to this Law, the taxable person shall not deduct this excess amount as input VAT, even though the VAT has been paid.

Article 39
Calculation of the deductible proportion of input VAT

1. In the case of goods and services used by a taxable person both for realizing transactions in respect of which VAT is deductible for the used goods and services, and for realizing transactions in respect of which VAT is not deductible for the used goods and services, only such proportion of the VAT is deductible as is attributable to those transactions in respect of which VAT is deductible. The taxable person may be authorised by TAK to make the deduction on basis of the real use made if he provides in his accounting records, data on the input VAT for which he is entitled and is not entitled to deduct input VAT for all used goods and services.
2. The deductible proportion shall be made up of a fraction comprising the following amounts:
 - 2.1.as a numerator: the total amount, exclusive of VAT, of annual turnover attributable to transactions on which the taxable person has the right to deduct input VAT,
 - 2.2.as a denominator: the amount included in the numerator and the amount of total annual turnover on which the taxable person does not have the right to deduct VAT, including subsidies other than those directly linked to the price of supplies of goods and services as referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 24 of this Law.

3. The calculation of the deductible proportion shall not include:

3.1. The amount of turnover attributable to supplies of capital goods used by the taxable person for the purposes of his business;

3.2. The amount of supply of financial services as referred to in paragraph 1 of Article 28 of this Law, if they are performed incidentally.

4. The deductible proportion of VAT shall be determined on an annual basis as a percentage, and shall be rounded up to the next whole number.

5. Provisional deductible proportion and actual deductible proportion:

5.1. The deductible proportion for the current year shall be determined provisionally on the basis of the data on preceding year's transactions - hereinafter referred to as "provisional deductible proportion". In the absence of data on transactions in the preceding year, or where they were insignificant in amount, the provisional deductible proportion shall be determined by TAK on the basis of the taxable person's own forecasts;

5.2. The deductible proportion shall be finally fixed when the actual volume of transactions in the year for which the deductible proportion is being determined - hereinafter referred to as "actual deductible proportion" - is known;

5.3. If it is established that the deduction of input VAT on the basis of the provisional deductible proportion was higher or lower than it should have been with respect to the actual data on volume of transactions, the input VAT deduction shall be adjusted accordingly in the tax return of the tax period of January of the following year, being the year in which the actual deductible proportion is established.

6. Notwithstanding paragraph 2 of this Article, a taxable person may determine the deductible proportion for each individual area of his activity separately, provided he maintains separate accounts for each individual area of his activity and provided he notifies TAK on the method of defining the deductible proportion. If TAK receives the notification at least fifteen (15) days before the start of the new tax period, the taxable person may start to calculate the deductible proportion pursuant to this sub-article in the first tax period following the tax period in which he informed the tax authority about his decision, otherwise with the beginning of the next tax period. The taxable person shall calculate a deductible proportion, chosen pursuant to this sub-article for at least twelve (12) months. If a taxable person wishes to change the method of calculating the deductible proportion again, he must notify again this change to TAK fifteen (15) days before the start of the tax period in which the new method is going to be used.

7.1.Following the notification made in accordance in paragraph 6 of this Article, prohibit the taxable person from using the chosen method for determining a deductible proportion if the chosen method does not allow TAK to control adequately the deduction of input VAT.

7.2.Authorize or require the taxable person to make the deduction on the basis of the real use made of all or part of the goods and services.

Article 40

VAT refund claims

1. A taxable person may either carry forward the excess VAT credit to the following tax period or submit a VAT refund claim, where, for a given tax period which is the last tax period of quarter of a calendar year, the VAT return of a taxable person reflects an amount of deductions that exceeds the amount of VAT due for that period. The excess VAT credit carried forward may be applied against the VAT liability in the succeeding tax periods.

2. VAT Refund claims:

Without prejudice to article 24 of the Law No 2004/48 on the Tax Administration Procedures and for the purpose of ensuring the correct and straightforward application of this sub-article, the following shall apply in respect of VAT refund claims:

2.1.A taxable person may claim a VAT refund if the VAT return for the last month of a quarter of calendar year reflects an amount of VAT credit that exceeds five thousand (5,000) € and provided that the taxable person was in credit status at the end of each tax period of such quarter and that all VAT returns and all other tax returns for all past tax periods have been submitted;

2.2.For exports, a refund may be claimed after each tax period, provided that the following conditions are met:

2.2.1.The export transactions represents at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the total transactions with entitlement of VAT input deduction and the amount of VAT credit exceeds five thousand (5000) € at the end of the tax period;

2.2.2.The taxable person complies with all applicable customs and VAT provisions, and

2.2.3.All VAT returns and other tax returns for all past periods are submitted.

3. Proof in respect of VAT refund claims:

- 3.1. At the moment of making a refund claim, the taxable person must be in the possession of all evidences and documents defined in the sub-legal act to be issued by the Minister of Economy and Finance as referred to in paragraph 4 of this article;
- 3.2. TAK shall retain the refund where the evidences and documents are not in the possession of the taxable person or if there are indications that the reported data in the VAT return in which the amount of the VAT refund is reported and previous VAT returns, are not correct. Such indications must be documented in an official -procès-verbal, established by a TAK officer or Customs officer. Such tax report provides evidence till the taxable person proves otherwise. TAK shall notify the taxable person that the refund will be retained and provide an explanation of the reasons for retaining the refund with a motivated decision;
- 3.3. The refund shall be retained until the competent TAK office receives the necessary missing evidences, documents and tax returns. If the documentation is not provided within the required timeframes established by TAK, the control of the VAT refund claim will be closed and a final report will be issued and provided to the taxpayer explaining the reasons for not approving the refund claim;
- 3.4. No interests for late refund as referred to in sub-paragraph 3 of paragraph 3 of this Article are incurred during the period that the VAT refund is retained;
4. The Minister of Economy and Finance shall issue a sub-legal act to determine:
- 4.1. The procedure and conditions in respect of VAT refunds related to periodic VAT returns; and
- 4.2. Alternative procedures for refunding VAT to persons not required to submit VAT returns; returns, to persons who are stopping their economic activity and to taxable persons and customers not established in Kosovo.

Article 41

Adjustment of deductions

1. The initial deduction shall be adjusted where it is higher or lower than the deduction to which the taxable person was entitled. In particular, adjustment shall be made where:
- 1.1. It is subsequently determined that the deduction of input VAT has been calculated at a higher or lower amount than the amount to which the taxable person has been entitled;

1.2. After the VAT return is submitted, changes occur in the factors used to calculate the deductible amount of input VAT, where for example purchases are cancelled or price reductions are obtained after the supply takes place.

2. In the case changes occur within five years from the calendar year of the beginning of use of capital goods, changes occur in the conditions, which were decisive during that year for the deduction of input VAT, a correction of the input VAT shall be made for the period following the change.

For immovable property, the period of twenty years instead of five years shall be applicable.

3. The tax period in which the deduction of input VAT was made or was not made shall be considered as the beginning of use of the capital good or immovable property mentioned under paragraph 2 of this Article.

4. The annual adjustment shall be made on the variations in the deductions entitlement in subsequent years in relation to that for the year in which the goods were used for the first time and shall be made in respect of one-fifth (1/5), respectively one-twentieth (1/20), in accordance with the type of capital asset, of the corresponding annual deduction originally made. However, if supplied during the adjustment period, capital goods shall be treated as if they had been applied to an economic activity of the taxable person up until expiry of the adjustment period.

5. An adjustment to the deduction of input VAT shall not be made if the difference of deducted VAT is less than twenty (20) €.

6. The Minister of Economy and Finance shall work out practical rules to record the VAT adjustments and to determine the deductible and non-deductible VAT in respect of these adjustments.

Article 42

Deduction of input VAT on commencement of economic activity as VAT registered taxable person.

1. On the day that the registration for VAT purposes becomes valid, a taxable person shall acquire the right to a deduction of input VAT for goods which he has in stock on the day before such registration becomes valid on basis of what is defined in the Articles 6, 7 and 8 of this Law. The deduction of input VAT may be verified by TAK on the basis of the accounting information of the taxable person and data of stocks of goods.

2. A taxable person subject to implementation of this article, may deduct input VAT in proportion to the supply performed in so far as that right of deduction exists, but shall not have the right to a VAT refund on this basis.

3. The Minister of Economy and Finance shall determine practical rules for the implementation of this article.

CHAPTER XIV

BAD DEBTS

Article 43

Bad debt for VAT purposes

1. Where the whole or part of the payment for a taxable supply is not received by a taxable person-supplier, he may consider the amount of non payment a bad debt for VAT purposes. Such taxable person may apply to TAK for written permission to reduce the amount of output tax due from him by the amount of VAT paid in respect of the supply that is attributable to the whole or part of the payment for the taxable supply that has not been received. The application shall be accompanied by sufficient evidence of the taxable person to prove that the VAT on the debt has been paid to TAK and that the whole or part of the payment for the taxable supply has not been received.

2. An application under paragraph 1 of this Article, shall not be made less than six months after the end of the tax period in which the VAT on the whole or part of the payment for a taxable supply, which has not been received, was paid to TAK.

3. The Director or the authorised person may refuse an application made under paragraph 1 of this Article, where he considers that the evidence of the taxpayer is insufficient that the taxable person has paid the VAT on the taxable supply to TAK and that he has not received the whole or part of the payment for that taxable supply.

4. Where the Director or the authorised person is satisfied that the taxable person has paid the VAT on the taxable supply and has not received the whole or part of the payment for that taxable supply, he shall give written permission for the taxable person to deduct from the amount of output tax due from him for his next tax period, the amount of VAT on the whole or part of the payment that has not been received.

5. Where a taxable person who made an application under paragraph 1 of this article, receives written permission from the Director to reduce his output tax in respect of a bad debt, he shall:

5.1. Create a bad debt invoice and include this in his records, with the letter from the Director attached to that invoice;

- 5.2. Send copies of that bad debt invoice and the Director's letter to the person to whom the taxable supply was made;
- 5.3. Send copies of that bad debt invoice and the Director's letter to the competent regional Tax Office.
6. Where the person to whom the taxable supply was made and who is bad debtor, receives a copy of the bad debt invoice and the Director's or authorized person's letter, he shall increase the amount of output tax shown on his next VAT return by the amount shown on the bad debt invoice.
7. Where the output tax of a taxable person has been reduced as a result of an application made under paragraph 2 of this article and the whole or part of that debt is subsequently paid, the taxable person shall treat as further output tax due for the tax period in which the subsequent payment was made the part of the output tax reduced that is attributable to the part of the bad debt subsequently paid.
8. The Minister of Economy and Finance may authorise by sub-legal act a special scheme for the enterprises of public interest.

2. The Minister of Economy and Finance shall issue a sub-legal act for the implementation of this Article.

CHAPTER XIX

SPECIAL SCHEMES

Article 58

Special schemes for travel agents

1. Principle:

1.1. The Minister of Economy and Finance, by a sub-legal act, provide for a special scheme for travel agents;

1.2. Such special scheme may be applied to transactions carried out by travel agents who deal with customers in their own name and use supplies of goods or services provided by other taxable persons, in the provision of travel facilities;

1.3. The application of the special scheme shall not apply to travel agents where they act solely as intermediaries and to whom sub-paragraph 3 of paragraph 6 of Article 24 of this Law applies for the purposes of calculating the taxable amount.

2. Definitions:

2.1. Tour operator means a person who acts in his own name and who organizes package tours with own means for travellers;

2.2. Travel agent means a person who acts as an intermediary and arranges transportation, accommodations, and tours for travellers;

2.3. For the purposes of this article, tour operators shall be regarded as travel agents.

3. Single service:

3.1. The transactions made, in accordance with the conditions of paragraph 1 of this article, by the travel agent in respect of a journey, shall be regarded as a single service supplied by the travel agent to the traveller;

3.2.The single service is taxable in Kosovo if the travel agent has established his business or has a fixed establishment in Kosovo from which he carries out the supply of services;

3.3.The taxable amount and the price exclusive of VAT in respect of the single service provided by the travel agent shall be the travel agent's margin, being the difference between the total amount, exclusive of VAT, to be paid by the traveller and the actual cost to the travel agent of supplies of goods or services provided by other taxable persons, where those transactions are for the direct benefit of the traveller;

3.4.If transactions entrusted by the travel agent to other taxable persons are performed by such persons outside Kosovo, the supply carried out by the travel agent shall be regarded as an intermediary activity exempted pursuant article 34 of this Law;

3.5.If the transactions are performed both inside and outside Kosovo, only that part of the travel agent's service relating to the transactions outside of Kosovo may be exempted;

3.6.VAT charged to the travel agent by other taxable persons in respect of transactions which are referred to in paragraph.3 of this Article and which are for the direct benefit of the traveller shall not be deductible or refundable.

Article 59

Special arrangements applicable to second-hand goods, works of art, collectors' items and antiques: Profit margin scheme and special arrangements for sales by public auction

Part A: Profit margin scheme

1. Principle: The Minister of Economy and Finance may, by sub-legal act, provide for special arrangements for taxing the profit margin of taxable dealers in respect of the supply of second-hand goods, works of art, collectors' items and antiques, as well as for simplifying the procedure for collecting the tax.

2. For the purposes of this arrangement, a taxable dealer means any taxable person who, in the course of his economic activity and with a view to resale, purchases, or applies for the purposes of his business, or imports, second-hand goods, works of art, collector's items or antiques, whether that taxable person is acting for himself or on behalf of another person pursuant to a contract under which commission is payable on purchase or sale.

"Second hand goods", "works of art", "collector's items", "antiques" and other specific terms used in the special scheme such as "selling price" and "purchase price" will be defined in the sub-legal act as referred to in paragraph 1 of this article.

3. The margin scheme applies to the supply by a taxable dealer of second-hand goods, work of art, collector's items or antiques where those goods have been supplied to him within Kosovo by one of the following persons:

3.1. A non-taxable person;

3.2. Another taxable person, in so far as the supply of goods by that other taxable person is exempt pursuant to the Articles 27 and 28 of this Law;

3.3. Another taxable dealer, in so far as VAT has been applied to the supply of goods by that other taxable dealer in accordance with this margin scheme.

4. The profit margin of the taxable dealer shall be equal to the difference between the selling price charged by the taxable dealer for the goods and the purchase price of these goods. The taxable amount in respect of the supply of second-hand goods, works of art, collector's items and antiques shall be the profit margin made by the taxable dealer, less the amount of VAT relating to the profit margin.

5. The taxable dealers shall be granted the right to opt for application of the margin scheme for the following transactions:

5.1. The supply of works of art, collectors' items and antiques, which the taxable dealer has imported himself,

5.2. The supply of works of art supplied to the taxable dealer by their creators or their successors in title;

5.3. If a taxable dealer exercises the option under paragraph 5 of this article, the taxable amount shall be determined in accordance with paragraph 4 of this article.

6. In the case of import of work of art, collectors' items or antiques by the taxable dealer himself, the purchase price to be taken into account in calculating the profit margin shall be equal to the taxable amount on importation plus the VAT paid on importation.

7. The chargeability for VAT, the entitlement of input VAT deduction in respect of supplies second-hand goods, works of art, collectors' item or antiques subject to the margin scheme and the records and accounts to be kept, shall be specified in the sub-legal act referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

8. Simplified procedures for collecting the VAT:

8.1. The Minister of Economy and Finance may also apply simplified procedures for collecting the VAT for certain transactions or for certain categories of taxable dealers, in particular in respect of the taxable amount of supplies of goods subject to the margin scheme;

8.2.The taxable dealer may also opt for the application of the normal VAT arrangements to any supply covered by the margin scheme with entitlement to deduct from the VAT for which he is liable, the VAT due or paid on the import or the VAT due or paid in respect of the work of art supplied to him by its creator, or the creator's successors in title, or by a taxable person other than a taxable dealer;

8.3.The right of deduction of input VAT shall arise at the time when the VAT due on the supply in respect of which the taxable dealer opts for application of the normal VAT arrangements, becomes chargeable.

Part B: Special arrangements for sales by public auction.

9. Principle: The Minister of Economy and Finance may apply special provisions different from paragraph 4 of this Article in respect of the determination of the taxable amount of supplies of second-hand goods, works of art, collectors' items or antiques effected by an organiser of sales by public auction, acting in his own name, pursuant to a contract under which commission is payable on the sale of those goods by public auction, on behalf of persons as will be determined by the Minister of Economy and Finance.

10. Special obligations shall be imposed on the organiser of the sale by public auction in respect of the issue of an invoice or a document in lieu to the purchaser as well as in respect of the content of such documents.

Article 60
Flat rate scheme for farmers

1.Principle: The Minister of Economy and Finance may, by a sub-legal act provide for the application to farmers whose activities are carried out in an agricultural, forestry or fisheries undertaking, a flat-rate scheme in order to offset VAT charged on purchases of goods and services made by the flat-rate farmers,

2. The application for a flat-rate farmer who is entitled to flat-rate compensation, the flat-rate compensation percentages to be applied to the prices exclusive of VAT, of the following goods and services:

2.1.Agricultural products supplied by flat-rate farmers to taxable persons not covered in Kosovo by the flat-rate scheme;

2.2.Agricultural services supplied by flat-rate farmers to taxable persons not covered in Kosovo by the flat-rate scheme;

2.3.The flat-rate compensation percentages may vary for forestry, for the different sub-sectors of agriculture and for fisheries.

3. Certain categories of farmers may be excluded from the flat-rate scheme as well as farmers for whom application of the normal arrangements is not likely to give rise to administrative difficulties.

4. Every flat-rate farmer may opt, subject to the rules and conditions laid down in the sub-legal act referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, for the normal VAT arrangements.

5. The sub-legal act to be issued by the Minister of Economy and Finance shall as well define:

5.1. Farmer, agricultural, forestry or fisheries undertakings, flat-rate farmer, agricultural products, agricultural services, input VAT charged, flat-rate compensation;

5.2. The flat-rate compensation percentages; and

5.3. The deduction of input VAT charged on capital goods.

Article 61

Special scheme for electronically supplied services

1. Principle: The Minister of Economy and Finance may permit by sub-legal act any non-established taxable person in Kosovo supplying electronic services to a non-taxable person who is established in Kosovo or who has his permanent address or usually resides in Kosovo, to use the special scheme for all electronic supplied services as meant by subparagraph 3.2.8 of Article 20 of this Law and enumerated in Annex II of this Law.

2. The non-established taxable person shall state to TAK when he commences or ceases his activity as a taxable person, or changes that activity in such a way that he no longer meets the conditions necessary for use of this special scheme. 2. The transitional period starts on 1 January 2010 and ends on 31 December 2012. This transitional period may be prolonged or reduced on a proposal made by the Minister of Economy and Finance, which is approved by the Assembly. Such a proposal must include an evaluation of the budgetary, economic and social effects of the implementation vis-a-vis the non-implementation of the provisions in question and fully justify the reasons for making the change.

3. The non-implementation on 1 January 2010 during the transitional period is put in place for:

3.1. The sub-paragraphs 4; 5; 10; 11; 12 of paragraph 1 ;the part of sub-paragraph 14 of paragraph 1 which relates to sub-paragraph 12 of paragraph 1 of Article 27 of this Law;

3.2. The paragraph 2 of Article 27 of this Law;

3.3. The part of paragraph 3 of Article 27 which relates to paragraph 2 of Article 27 of this Law;

3.4. The part of paragraph 4 of Article 44 of this Law which concerns the signature obligation of the invoice;

3.5. The chapter XX in respect of the special schemes except for the special scheme for electronically supplied services as referred to in Article 61 of this Law.

4. The implementation on 1 January 2010 during the transitional period of provisions which have their equivalent in the VAT Regulation No. 2001/11 as amended and in the VAT Law 03/L-114:

4.1. The paragraph 2 of Article 29 of this Law;

4.2. The paragraph 2 of Article 30 of this Law;

4.3. The paragraph 2 of Article 33 of this Law;

4.4. The paragraph 3 of Article 33 of this Law.

5. TAK shall continue to apply the VAT Regulation No. 2001/11 as amended and the VAT Law No. 03/L-114, when considering any tax issues related to tax periods up to and including the tax periods before the entry into force of the present VAT Law that might arise on or after that date.

Article 65

Implementation

1. The Minister of Economy and Finance shall issue the sub-legal acts required by and referred to in this Law within a period of six months commencing on the date of entry into force of this Law.
2. The Director may also issue public rulings in accordance with Article 9 of the Law No. 2004/48 on Tax Administration and Procedures for administering this Law and for providing commentaries and additional explanations.
3. The present Law shall be applied from 1 January 2010.

Article 66
