68. (1) Where a company has passed a resolution for reducing share capital, it may apply to the court for an order confirming the reduction.

(2) Where the proposed reduction of share capital involves either diminution of liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any member of any paid-up share capital, and in any other case if the court so directs, the following provisions shall have effect, subject nevertheless to sub-section (3) of this section -

- (a) every creditor of the company who at the date fixed by the court is entitled to any debt or claim which, if that date were the commencement of the winding up of the company, would be admissible in proof against the company, shall be entitled to object to the reduction;
- (b) the court shall settle a list of creditors so entitled to object, and for that purpose shall ascertain, as far as possible without requiring an application from any creditor, the names of those creditors and the nature and amount of their debts or claims, and may publish notices fixing a day or days within which creditors not entered on the list are to claim to be so entered or are to be excluded from the right of objecting to the reduction;
- (c) where a creditor entered on the list whose debt or claim is not discharged or has not been determined does not consent to the reduction, the court may, if it thinks fit, dispense with the consent of that creditor, on the company securing payment of his debt or claim by appropriating as the court may direct, the following amount -
 - (i) if the company admits the full amount of the debt or claim, or, though not admitting it, is willing to provide for it, then the full amount of debt or claim;
 - (ii) if the company does not admit and is not willing to provide for the full amount of the debt or claim, or if the amount is contingent or not ascertained, then an amount fixed by the court after the like enquiry and adjudication as if the company were being wound up by the court.

(3) Where a proposed reduction of share involves either the diminution of any liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any member of any paid-up share capital, the court may, if having regard to any special circumstances of the case it thinks proper so to do, direct that sub-section (2) of this section shall not apply as regards any class or any classes of creditors.

69. (1) The court, if satisfied, with respect of every creditor of the company who, under section sixty-eight is entitled to object to the reduction, that either his consent to the reduction has been obtained or his debt or claim has been discharged, or has terminated, or has been secured, may make an order confirming the reduction on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, and in particular may -

- (a) direct that the company shall, during such period, commencing on or at any time after the date of the order, as is specified in the order, add to its name as the last words thereof the words [and reduced]; or

(2) Where a company is ordered to add to its name the words "and reduced" those words shall, until the expiration of the period specified in the order, be deemed to be part of the name of the company.

70. (1) The Registrar, on production to him of an order of the court confirming the reduction of the share capital of a company and the delivery to him of a copy of the order and of a minute approved by the court, showing with respect to the share capital of the company, as altered by the order, the amount of the share capital, the number of shares into which it is to be divided, and the amount of each share, and the amount, if any at the date of a registration deemed to be paid up on each share, shall register the order and minute.

(2) On the registration of the order and minute, and not before, the resolution for reducing share capital is confirmed by the order so registered, shall take effect.

(3) Notice of the registration shall be published in such manner as the court may direct.

(4) The Registrar shall certify under his hand the registration of the order and minute, and his certificate shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this Act with respect to reduction of share capital have been complied with, and that the share capital of the company is such as is stated in the minute.

(5) The minute when registered shall be deemed to be substituted for the corresponding part of the memorandum, and shall be valid and alterable as if it had been originally contained therein.

(6) The substitution of any such minute as aforesaid for part of the memorandum of the company shall be deemed to be an alteration of the memorandum within the meaning of section twenty-six.

71. (1) In the case of a reduction of share capital, a member of the company past or present, shall not be liable in respect of any share to any call or contribution exceeding in amount the difference, if any, between the amount of the share as fixed by the minute and the amount paid, or the reduced amount, if any, which is to be deemed to have been paid, on the share, as the case may be:

Provided that, if any creditor, entitled in respect of any debt or claim to object to the reduction of share capital, is, through no default on his part, ignorant of the proceedings, for reduction, and is in consequence not entered on the list of creditors and if at any time within twelve months after the reduction the company is unable within the meaning of section one hundred and seventy-two to pay the amount of his debt or claim then-

- (a) every person who was a member of the company at the date of registration of the order for reduction and minute shall be liable to contribute for the payment of that debt or claim an amount not exceeding the amount which he would have been liable to contribute if the company had commenced to be wound up on the day before the said date; and
- (b) if the company is wound up, the court, on the application of any such creditor and proof of his ignorance as aforesaid, may, if it thinks fit, settle accordingly a list of persons so liable to contribute, and make and enforce calls and orders on the contributories settled on the list, as if they were ordinary contributories in a winding up.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of the contributories among themselves.

72. If any officer of the company -

- (a) wilfully conceals the name of any creditor entitled to object to the reduction; or
- (b) wilfully misrepresents the nature or amount of the debt or claim of any creditor; or

(c) aids, abets or is privy to any such concealment or misrepresentation as aforesaid;

he shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twelve month, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

Transfer of Shares and Debentures, Evidence of Titles, etc.

[73.] (1) The shares or other interest of any member in a company shall be movable property, transferable in manner provided by the articles of the company.

(2) Each share in a company shall be distinguished by its appropriate number:

Provided that at any time all the issued shares in a company, or all the issued shares therein, of a particular class, are fully paid up and rank pari passu for all purposes, none of those shares need thereafter have a distinguishing number so long as it remains fully paid up and ranks pari passu for all purposes with all shares of the same class for the time being issued and fully paid up.

(3) Where in terms of the proviso to sub-section (2) of this section shares are not distinguished by appropriate numbers, the certificates of such shares shall be so distinguished, and upon the registration of transfer of any such shares the certificate relating thereto shall, in addition to the distinguishing number, bear on its face such an endorsement, in the form of a reference number or otherwise, as will enable the immediately preceding holder of the shares to be identified.

74. Notwithstanding anything in the articles of a company, it shall not be lawful for the company to register a transfer of shares in or debentures of the company unless a proper instrument of transfer has been delivered to the company:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prejudice any power of the company to register as member or debenture holder any person to whom the right to any shares in or debentures of the company has been transmitted by operation of law.

75. On the application of the transferor of any share or interest in a company, the company shall enter in its register of members and the name of transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for entry were made by the transferee and subject also to the law relating to stamp duty.

76. (1) If a company refuses to register a transfer of any shares or debentures the company shall, within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the company, send to the transferor and the transferee notice of the refusal.

(2) If default is made in complying with this section the company and every officer of the company who is in default shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten rand for every day during which the offence continues.

77. A transfer of the share or other interest of a deceased member of a company made by his executor shall, although the executor is not himself a member, be as valid as if he had been a member at the date of the execution of the instrument or transfer, subject always to the law relating to stamp duty.

78. (1) Every company shall, within two months after the allotment of any of its shares, debentures, or debenture stock, and within two months after the date on which a transfer of any such shares, debentures or debentures stock is lodged with the company, complete and have ready for delivery the certificates of all shares, the debentures, and the certificates of all debentures stock allotted or transferred, unless the conditions of issue of the shares, the debentures, and the certificates of all debentures stock allotted or transferred, unless the condition of issue of the shares, debentures, or debenture stock otherwise provide.

For the purpose of this sub-section, the expression "transfer" means a transfer duly stamped and otherwise valid, and does not include such a transfer as the company is for any reason entitled to refuse to register and does not register.

(2) If default is made in complying with the requirements of this section the company, and every officer of the company who is in default, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten rand for every day during which the offence continues.

(3) If any company, on whom a notice has been served requiring the company to make good any default in complying with the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section fails to make good and default within ten days after the service of notice, the court may, on application of the person entitled to have the certificates or the debentures delivered to him, make an order directing the company and any officer of the company to make good the default within such time as may be specified in the order, and any such order may provide that all costs of and incidental to the application shall be borne by the company or by any officer of the company responsible for the default.

79. A certificate, under the seal of the company, and under the hand of one of its directors, specifying any shares of stock held by any member, if it has a seal, or it has not a seal, under the hands of two of its directors or of one director and of the secretary, shall be prima facie evidence of the title of the member to the shares or stock.

80. If any person falsely and deceitfully personates any owner of any share or interest in any company, and thereby obtains or endeavours to obtain any such share or interest or receives or endeavours to receive any money due to any such owner as if the impersonator were the true and lawful owner, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding two thousand rand or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding ten years.
