To provide for the orderly conduct of public meetings and public processions

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Public Gathering Act 1991

2 Interpretation

In this Act—

“Commissioner” means the Commissioner of Police;

“meeting” —

(a) means an assembly of 12 or more persons wherever convened or organised for any purpose; but

(b) does not include any meeting or assembly of persons convened or organised exclusively for the purpose of any public or corporate body held otherwise than in a public place;

“Minister” means the Minister to whom responsibility for the subject of internal affairs is assigned;

“offensive weapon” means any article made, or adapted for use, or suitable for causing injury to the person, or intended by the person having it in his possession or under his control for that use by him or by some other person;

“police officer” includes any officer of the Special Mobile Force;

“procession” means a body of persons or vehicles proceeding in succession;

“public entertainment” means dancing, singing or music, charity bazaars, stage plays or performances, cinematograph exhibitions given or held indoors or outdoors, to which the public or any section of the public has been convened or has or is entitled or permitted to have access, whether on payment or otherwise;

“public gathering” means a public meeting or a public procession;

“public meeting” —

(a) means any meeting held or to be held in a public place;

(b) includes a meeting of school children, a sports meeting and a meeting for public entertainment; but

(c) does not include a meeting held exclusively for a religious purpose;

“public place” means anyplace in which the public or any section of the public has or is entitled or permitted to have access, whether on payment or otherwise;

“public procession” —

(a) means any procession in, to or from, a public place consisting of 12 or more persons proceeding on foot or of more than one vehicle;

(b) does not include —

(i) a procession held exclusively for a religious purpose;

(ii) a marriage or funeral procession;

“public safety or public order” includes—

(a) the securing of the safety of persons and property;

(b) the maintenance of supplies and-services essential to the life of the community;

(c) the prevention and suppression of violence, intimidation, disorder and crime;

(d) the prevention and suppression of mutiny, rebellion and concerted defiance of and disobedience to the law and lawful authority; and

(e) the maintenance of the administration of justice;

“road” includes any highway, street, thoroughfare, pathway, passage, footway, pavement or square;

“sports meeting” means any race meeting, regatta or any athletic, field game or any other game, whether held indoors or outdoors, to which the public or a section of the public has been convened or has or is entitled or permitted to have access, whether on payment or otherwise;

“vehicle” —

(a) means any vehicle designed or adapted for use on any road; and

(b) includes any other means of conveyance;

“vessel” includes any ship or boat.

(1) Any person wishing to hold or organise a public meeting or a public procession shall give written notice to the Commissioner not less than 7 clear days before the day the meeting or procession is to be held or organised.

(2) No public meeting and no public procession shall be advertised or otherwise publicized unless notice has been given in accordance with this section.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Commissioner may, on good cause shown to him, accept a shorter notice.

(4) A notice under this section shall be in writing and shall, in relation to the public gathering —

(a) state the date on which and the exact place at which the meeting or procession is to be held;

(b) state the time at which it will start and its approximate duration;

(c) in the case of a meeting, be accompanied by the written authorisation of the person or authority owning, occupying or administering the premises on which the meeting is to be held;

(d) in the case of a procession, state the starting place and destination of the procession and the route through which the procession is to pass;

(e) state the names and addresses of the organisers and bear their signatures not exceeding three.

(5) Where notice to hold or organise a public meeting or public procession has been given under this section and the holder or organiser of the meeting or procession decides thereafter to cancel or postpone it, notice of the cancellation or postponement shall immediately be given to the Commissioner.

(6) Any person who fails to comply with this section shall commit an offence.

4 Conditions on public gathering and prohibition thereof

- (1) The Commissioner shall have power, for the purpose of preventing public disorder, damage to property or disruption of the life of the community, to impose conditions on the holding of the gathering.
- (2) When the Commissioner intends to exercise his power under subsection (1), he shall within 48 hours from receiving the notice, call the organisers and inform them of his intention and of the reasons thereof.
- (3) The Commissioner shall have power to prohibit the gathering where he reasonably believes that imposing conditions would not be sufficient to prevent public disorder, damage to property or disruption of the life of the community and shall inform the organisers within 48 hours of receiving the notice.
- (4) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Commissioner under this section may refer the matter to the Judge in Chambers in the Supreme Court who shall, after hearing the parties, make such order as he may deem fit in the circumstances.

5 Putting an end to gathering

- (1) Where during the course of any public gathering any police officer, not below the rank of Inspector, has reasonable grounds to believe that the continuance of the gathering is prejudicial to public safety or public order, he may direct the organiser of the gathering to put an end to it.
- (2) Any person who fails to comply with any direction given under this section shall commit an offence.

6 Public gathering being held without permission

- (1) Where the Commissioner is informed that a public gathering is about to be held or is being held without notice being given he may issue such orders as he considers necessary and may-
  - (a) use such force as may be necessary to prevent the holding of, stop or disperse the public gathering;
  - (b) enter any premises or place in which any gathering is taking place; and
  - (c) prohibit access to any public place, to prevent the public or any person or class of persons from taking part in the public gathering.

- (2) Where access to any public place is prohibited under subsection (1), this fact shall be notified —
  - (a) by means of notices exhibited; or
  - (b) by the erection of physical barriers, at the points of access to the public place; or
  - (c) in such other manner as the Commissioner thinks fit.
- (3) Any person who —
  - (a) neglects or refuses to obey any order issued under subsection (1);
  - (b) without lawful authority, enters or remains in any public place to which access has been prohibited under subsection (1),shall commit an offence.

7 Additional permission

- (1) Subject to section 3, no public gathering may be held in any public garden within the area of a local authority without the written permission of the mayor or Chairman, as the case may be.
- (2) Subject to section 3, no public gathering shall be held on any public beach without the written permission of the Beach Authority
- (3) The organiser of any gathering who fails to comply with this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs 2,000.
- (4) In this section, "Beach Authority" and "public beach" have the same meaning as in the Beach Authority Act 2002.

Amended by [Act No. 7 of 2002]

8 Restriction on public gathering

- (1) Except with the written authorisation of the Commissioner, no public meeting or public procession shall be held in the district of Port Louis on any day on which the Assembly meets and sits.

(2) Where a poll is to be taken on any day in an electoral area under the Representation of the People Act, no public meeting and no public procession shall, after 6 p.m. on the eve of that day, be held anywhere in that electoral area.

(3) No public meeting and no public procession shall be held in an electoral area on the day of, and on the 3 days following, the declaration of the result of the poll at any election in that electoral area conducted under the Representation of the People Act.

(4) Any person who fails to comply with this section shall commit an offence.

9 Having offensive weapon at public gathering

Any person who, while present at any public gathering, has in his possession, without lawful authority or reasonable excuse, any offensive weapon shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to penal servitude for a term not exceeding 5 years.
