7. (1) A member of the Commission may resign from office by letter in that behalf addressed to the President, and such resignation shall take effect from the date on which the resignation is accepted in writing by the President.

(2) A member of the Commission may be removed from his office by the President, subject to the approval of the Constitutional Council following a hearing of the relevant member where such person—
(a) is unable to exercise, perform and discharge the powers, duties and functions of such office because of an infirmity of body or mind that has lasted for more than a period of three months;

(b) has failed to exercise, perform and discharge the powers, duties and functions of such office for a consecutive period of more than three months without the approval of the Commission; or

(c) is disqualified in terms of the provisions of section 6.

(3) Any hearing under subsection (2) shall be concluded within three months from the date of commencement of such hearing.

(4) Upon the receipt of the approval of the Constitutional Council, the President shall, in writing, remove such member of the Commission, and shall state in the letter of removal-

(a) the date on which the removal shall take effect which shall not be a date earlier than the date on which the letter of removal is received; and

(b) the reasons for the removal.

(5) Any member of the Commission may be suspended from the office by the President prior to the commencement of the hearing or during the course of the hearing under subsection (2).

(6) The term of office of a member of the Commission shall be three years from the date of appointment.
(7) Where a member of the Commission vacates office by death, resignation or other cause, the President shall appoint, having regard to the provisions of sections 5 and 6, another eligible person in such member’s place, and the person so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired period of the term of office of the member whom such person succeeds.

(8) A member of the Commission whose term of office is due to end otherwise than by removal, shall be eligible for reappointment for not more than one further term of office, whether consecutive or otherwise.

(9) Members of the Commission shall be paid such remuneration as may be determined by a resolution of Parliament and such remuneration shall be charged to the Fund of the Commission.

8. (1) The President shall appoint one of the members of the Commission to be the Chairman of the Commission (hereinafter referred to as the “Chairman”).

(2) The Chairman may resign from the office of Chairman by letter in that behalf addressed to the President and the resignation shall take effect from the date on which it is accepted, in writing, by the President.

(3) The Chairman shall cease to be the Chairman, if disqualified to be a member of the Commission in terms of section 6.

(4) The term of office of the Chairman shall be three years.

(5) The Chairman shall not, on vacation of the office of Chairman, be eligible for reappointment as Chairman.
(6) Without prejudice to the provisions of this section, the Chairman shall, within one month of being appointed as the Chairman, nominate a member in writing, to be the Deputy Chairman to discharge the functions of the Chairman during his absence from office due to illness or any other cause.

9. (1) The Chairman shall summon all meetings of the Commission. Any member of the Commission may, by written notice, request the Chairman to call a meeting of the Commission and the Chairman shall not otherwise than for good reason, refuse to do so.

(2) The Commission may decide any matter, which is determined by the Chairman to be urgent with the agreement of the majority of the members.

(3) The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Commission and in the absence of the Chairman at any meeting, the Deputy Chairman shall preside at such meeting.

(4) The quorum for a meeting of the Commission shall be three members including the Chairman. In the absence of the Chairman, the quorum shall be three members including the Deputy Chairman.

(5) All matters for decision by the Commission shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members of the Commission present and voting at the meeting at which the decision is taken. The decision so supported by the votes of a majority of the members of the Commission on any matter shall be deemed to be the decision of the Commission on that matter.
(6) All decisions of the Commission, supported by reasons, shall be in writing and the seal of the Commission affixed thereto in accordance with paragraph (c) of section 10.

(7) In case there is an equality of votes on any matter to be decided by the Commission, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

(8) Subject to the preceding provisions of this section, the Commission may regulate the procedure in regard to the meetings of the Commission and the transaction of business at such meetings.

(9) No act, decision or proceeding of the Commission shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the existence of any vacancy in its membership or defect in the appointment of any member thereof.

10. The Seal of the Commission-

(a) shall be determined by the Commission and may be altered in such manner as may be determined by the Commission;

(b) shall be in the custody of such person as the Commission may determine from time to time; and

(c) shall not be affixed to any instrument or document except with the sanction of the Commission and in the presence of two members of the Commission who shall sign the instrument or document in token of their presence.
PART II

POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE COMMISSION

11. The Commission shall have the following powers and functions:

PART IV

MEASURES AGAINST ONLINE COMMUNICATION OF PROHIBITED STATEMENTS IN SRI LANKA

23. (1) A person aggrieved by the communication of a prohibited statement which is seen, heard or otherwise perceived by the users of internet based communication services (in this Act referred to as the “end users”) in Sri Lanka, by any other person, may either in writing or in electronic form, make a complaint providing information pertaining to such communication to the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall designate such number of information officers from among the staff of the Commission as the Commission may deem necessary, from time to time, to receive information in relation to communication of a prohibited statement for the purpose of subsection (1).

(3) (a) Every complaint shall set out all available details of the person or persons responsible for the making or communicating the prohibited statement, including, where available, details pertaining to the Universal Resource Locator (hereinafter referred to as the “URL”) or other identifying features of the location or number from which the prohibited statement was communicated or published, and such other details as may be prescribed.

(b) Where it is possible to do so, the complainant shall serve a copy of the complaint to the person or persons making or communicating the prohibited statement and any internet service provider or internet intermediary.
(c) In the event, the information necessary to give such notice as aforesaid is not available, the complainant shall specify the absence of such information in the complaint.

(4) A written acknowledgement of the receipt, including a receipt in electronic form, of such information shall be immediately issued by the information officer on behalf of the Commission.

(5) Where the Commission is of the opinion that sufficient material exists that a prohibited statement has been communicated, the Commission shall carry out investigations through the officers of the Commission. During such investigations, an opportunity to be heard shall be given to the person alleged to have communicated such prohibited statement.

(6) (a) If the Commission is satisfied, that sufficient material exists that a prohibited statement has been communicated, it may, taking into consideration the seriousness of the matter and the likelihood of damage or harm caused by such prohibited statement, issue notice to the person who communicated such prohibited statement, to take measures to prevent the circulation of such prohibited statement.

(b) A person to whom a notice has been issued under paragraph (a) shall comply with such notice immediately but not later than twenty four hours from such notice.

(c) Notice referred to in paragraph (a), shall be deemed to be served, where it is served by personal service, sent by post to the last known address of the person who communicated such prohibited statement, or served by electronic means to such person, or served by such other appropriate method adopted by the Commission depending on the nature of the case.
(d) Notice referred to in paragraph (a) shall be deemed to be served by electronic means where such notice is sent to such person’s email address or social media account, or internet service provider or internet intermediary on whose online location such prohibited statement has been communicated.

(7) Where any person fails to comply with a notice issued under subsection (6) within twenty four hours of such notice, the Commission shall issue a notice to the internet service provider or internet intermediary on whose online location such prohibited statement has been communicated-

(a) to disable access by the end users in Sri Lanka to such prohibited statement; or

(b) to remove such prohibited statement from such online location, as the case may be, for the period specified in such notice.

(8) The internet service provider or internet intermediary to whom a notice has been issued under subsection (7) shall comply with such notice within twenty four hours from the issuance of such notice.

(9) Where-

(a) a person fails to act in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of subsection (6); or

(b) an internet service provider or internet intermediary fails to act in accordance with the provisions of subsection (8), the Commission may apply to the Magistrate’s Court by way of petition and affidavit to obtain an order directing such person or internet service provider or internet intermediary, as the case may be, to comply with such provisions and the provisions of section 24, shall mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to such application.

24. (1) Any person affected by the communication of any prohibited statement may apply to the Magistrate’s Court by way of petition and affidavit to obtain an order to prevent the circulation of such information.

(2) Upon considering such application, the Magistrate may issue a conditional order to such person or the internet service provider or internet intermediary on whose online location such prohibited statement has been communicated.

(3) The order made under subsection (2) may contain, inter alia-

(a) the name of the person who is required to stop communication of the prohibited statement with immediate effect; and

(b) any other order as the Magistrate deems fit.

(4) (a) The order made under subsection (2) shall be deemed to be served, where it is served by personal service, sent by post to the last known address of such person, or served by electronic means to such person, or by such other appropriate method ordered by the Magistrate depending on the nature of the case.

(b) The order made under subsection (2) shall be deemed to be served by electronic means where such order is sent to such person’s email address or social media account, or internet service provider or internet intermediary on whose online location such prohibited statement has been communicated.
(5) The person against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (2) shall either comply with such order or appear before the Magistrate as specified in subsection (6) to show cause as to why the order shall not be made absolute.

(6) Where the person against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (2) intends to show cause, such person shall appear before the Magistrate making that order within a period of two weeks of making such order and move to have the order set aside or modified in the manner hereinafter provided.

(7) If the person against whom an order is made under subsection (2) neither complies with the order nor appears before the Magistrate under subsection (6), such person shall be liable to the penalty specified in subsection (9) and the order shall be made absolute.

(8) (a) Where such person appears before the Magistrate in terms of subsection (6), to show cause by way of petition and affidavit, the Magistrate shall hold an inquiry which shall be concluded within two weeks of the date of commencement of the inquiry.

(b) The Magistrate may, having regard to the facts stated by the person against whom the conditional order is made under subsection (2), either move to have the order set aside or modified, if the Magistrate is satisfied that the order made under this section is not reasonable and proper, and make an appropriate order subject to the provisions of this Act.

(c) If the Magistrate is not so satisfied, the order made under subsection (2) shall be made absolute.

(d) Where the order under subsection (2) is modified under paragraph (b), such order shall be made absolute.
(9) Where the person against whom any order is made under this section fails to comply with such order within the period and in the manner ordered by the Magistrate, such person commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine not exceeding two million rupees and the Magistrate may order the Commission to take steps to -

(a) disable access by end users in Sri Lanka to the online location containing such communication of the prohibited statement in Sri Lanka; or

(b) remove the relevant communication of the prohibited statement in Sri Lanka from the online location containing such communication.

25. (1) Where any person is aggrieved by the communication of a prohibited statement and the information necessary to serve a copy of the complaint under subsection (3) of section 23 is not available, such person shall specify the absence of such information in the complaint made under subsection (1) of section 23.

(2) In the event of the receipt of a complaint referred to in subsection (1), the Commission shall make an application to the Magistrate’s Court by way of petition and affidavit seeking a conditional order directing the internet intermediary on whose online location such prohibited statement was communicated, to disclose the information regarding the identity of the person who communicated the prohibited statement.

(3) The Magistrate may upon being satisfied that –
(a) the statement was a prohibited statement;

(b) the order is sought for the sole purpose of identifying the person who communicated such prohibited statement; and

(c) the order is a proportionate and necessary response in all of the circumstances of the matter before the Court, taking into consideration whether the petitioner’s right to disclosure of the information is outweighed by any countervailing right or interest of the person sought to be identified, issue the order sought by the Commission.

(4) The order made under subsection (3) may contain, inter alia-

(a) the name of the internet intermediary which is required to disclose the information sought; and

(b) any other order as the Magistrate deems fit.

(5) (a) The order made under subsection (3) shall be deemed to be served, where it is served by personal service, sent by post to the last known address of the internet intermediary, or served by electronic means to such internet intermediary, or by such other appropriate method ordered by the Magistrate depending on the nature of the case.

(b) The order made under subsection (3) shall be deemed to be served by electronic means where such order is sent to the email address or social media account, of the internet intermediary on whose online location such prohibited statement has been communicated.
(6) The internet intermediary against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (3) shall either comply with such order or appear before the Magistrate as specified in subsection (7) to show cause as to why the order shall not be made absolute.

(7) Where the internet intermediary against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (3) intends to show cause, it shall appear before the Magistrate making that order within a period of two weeks of making such order and move to have the order set aside or modified in the manner hereinafter provided.

(8) If the internet intermediary against whom an order is made under subsection (3) neither complies with the order nor appears before the Magistrate under subsection (7), it shall be liable to the fine specified in subsection (10) and the order shall be made absolute.

(9) (a) Where such internet intermediary appears before the court in terms of subsection (7) to show cause by way of petition and affidavit, the Magistrate shall hold an inquiry which shall be concluded within two weeks of the date of commencement of the inquiry.

(b) The Magistrate may, having regard to the facts stated by the internet intermediary against whom the conditional order is made under subsection (3), either move to have the order set aside or modified, if the Magistrate is satisfied that the order under this section is not reasonable and proper, make an appropriate order subject to the provisions of this Act.

(c) If the Magistrate is not so satisfied, the order made under subsection (3) shall be made absolute.
(d) Where the order under subsection (3) is modified under paragraph (b), such order shall be made absolute.

(10) Where the internet intermediary against whom any order is made under this section fails to comply with such order within the period and in the manner ordered by the Magistrate, such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten million rupees.

26. (1) Any person who is aggrieved by the communication of a prohibited statement may, by way of a civil action instituted in the District Court within the jurisdiction of which such aggrieved person resides, apply for an order directing the internet intermediary of the online location on which such prohibited statement communicated to disclose any information regarding the identity or the location of the person who used such online location to communicate such statement using the inauthentic online account or bot.

(2) Upon the receipt of an application under subsection (1), the court may, if-

(a) the prohibited statement was communicated by a person whose identity cannot be traced by the person who is aggrieved by such statement;

(b) the internet intermediary against whom the order is sought was involved in the communication of such statement whether innocently or not;
(c) the information sought is necessary for the aggrieved person to initiate legal proceedings to seek redress in relation to the damage or harm caused by the communication of such statement; and

(d) the aggrieved person’s right to get such information disclosed is outweighed by any countervailing right or interest of the person sought to be identified, order an internet intermediary to disclose the information as requested by the aggrieved person.

27. (1) Subject to the provisions of any other written law and the provisions of subsection (2), a person who engages in providing the following services shall have no liability in relation to the communication of a prohibited statement circulated through the online location owned, operated or controlled by such person, or for making available to the end users through such online location a communication link which contains any prohibited statement by any other party, which amounts to an offence under this Act or for any compensation payable for any wrongful loss caused to any person by such communication:-

(a) an internet intermediary service;

(b) a telecommunication service;

(c) a service of giving public access to the internet;

(d) a computing resource service;

(e) an email service, if emails are the only user-generated content enabled by such service;

(f) a short message service or multimedia messaging service -
(i) if such short messages are the only user-generated content enabled by such service;

(ii) if such multimedia messages are the only user-generated content enabled by such service; or

(iii) if such short messages and multimedia messages are the only user-generated content enabled by such service; or

(g) one-to-one live aural communication service, if such one-to-one live aural communications are the only user-generated content enabled by such service.

(2) Where-

(a) a false statement, prohibited statement or material communicated on any service referred to in subsection (1) has been removed within six months from the date of coming into operation of this Act; or

(b) any material has been uploaded or interfered with by third parties, the owner of an online account or the internet service provider shall have no liability in relation to the statement or the material referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).

(3) The exemption from liability granted under subsection (1) shall not apply, if such person –

(a) has initiated the communication;

(b) has selected the end user of the communication;

(c) has selected or modified the content of the communication; or Online Safety Act, No. 9 of 2024

(d) has not complied with the provisions of this Act, any regulation or rule made thereunder or any code of practice issued by the Commission by way of rules made under this Act, in providing such service.

(4) Any person who fails to adhere to the relevant code of practice issued by the Commission by way of rules made under this Act, and thereby causes wrongful loss to any other person, shall be liable to pay damages by way of compensation to the person who suffered such loss.

(5) For the purpose of this section-

“computing resource service” includes any internet service provided by a person to the public using any means except by the use of an internet intermediary service, a telecommunications service or a service of giving public access to the internet;

“telecommunication service” shall have the same meaning assigned to such term in the Sri Lanka Telecommunications Act, No. 25 of 1991.

PART V

DECLARED ONLINE LOCATIONS

28. (1) The Commission may declare an online location as a “declared online location”, if-

(a) three or more different prohibited statements have been communicated to the end users in Sri Lanka on such online location in respect of which conditional orders were made absolute by the Magistrate under section 24; and
(b) at least three of such statements had first been communicated to the end users in Sri Lanka on such online location within six months prior to the date of a declaration under this section is made.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (1), a statement is different from another if it is different in a material particular from that other statement.

(3) A declaration made under this section shall contain-

(a) the URL, domain name, or any other unique identifier of the online location;

(b) the relevant orders made by the Magistrate’s Court;

(c) the date on which the declaration comes into effect;

(d) the date on which the declaration expires which must not be later than two years after the date referred to in paragraph (c);

(e) a notice for the owner or operator of the online location whether in or outside Sri Lanka to communicate in such manner as may be specified in the declaration, to any end user in Sri Lanka who accesses the online location, a notice in such form as may be specified in such declaration, that the online location is the subject of a declaration; and

(f) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(4) A declaration made under this section may expire-

(a) on the date specified therein, in accordance with paragraph (d) of subsection (3); or
(b) on the date it is cancelled or set aside by the Commission, whichever is earlier.

(5) As soon as possible after a declaration is made and before the date it comes into effect, the Commission shall publish, in such form and manner as may be prescribed, a notice in the Gazette -

(a) stating that a declaration has been issued under this section; and

(b) setting out the URL, domain name, or any other unique identifier of the online location, to which the declaration relates.

(6) (a) The declaration shall be deemed to be served, if the declaration is served by personal service, sent by post to the last known address of such owner or operator of the online location, or served by electronic means to such person, or by such other appropriate method adopted by the Commission, depending on the nature of the case.

(b) The declaration shall be deemed to be served by electronic means where such declaration is sent to the email address or social media account of the owner or operator of the online location through which such prohibited statement has been communicated.

(7) Where any owner or operator of a declared online location fails to comply with the notice to communicate a notice as referred to in paragraph (e) of subsection (3), the Commission or any person authorised by the Commission may apply to the Magistrate for an order directing owner or operator to-
(a) disable access by the end users in Sri Lanka to such declared online location;

(b) to communicate to all end users in Sri Lanka who access such declared online location, a notice declaring that the online location is the subject of a declaration; and

(c) any other order as the Magistrate deems fit.

(8) Upon considering such application, the Magistrate may make a conditional order on the owner or operator of a declared online location containing the directions applied by the Commission under subsection (7).

(9) The order made under subsection (8) may contain, inter alia-

(a) the name of the owner or operator of a declared online location who is required to disable access by the end users in Sri Lanka to the declared online location;

(b) the manner of communicating the notice referred to in paragraph (e) of subsection (3); and

(c) the period within which such notice shall be published after the service of the order.

(10) The order made under subsection (8) shall be deemed to be served on the owner or operator of a declared online location against whom the order is made, if the order is served by personal service, sent by registered post to the last known address of such person, or served by electronic means to such person, or by any other method deemed proper by the Magistrate depending on the nature of the case and in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
(11) The owner or operator of a declared online location against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (8) shall either comply with such order or appear before the Magistrate as specified in subsection (12) to show cause as to why the order shall not be made absolute.

(12) Where the owner or operator of a declared online location against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (8) intends to show cause, such person shall appear before the Magistrate making that order within a period of two weeks of making such order and move to have the order set aside or modified in the manner hereinafter provided:

Provided however, any owner or operator of a declared online location against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (8) shall be bound to comply with the order with effect from the date of making such order until such order is set aside or modified by the Magistrate in terms of the provisions of this section.

(13) If the owner or operator of a declared online location against whom an order is made under subsection (8) neither complies with the order nor appears before the Magistrate under subsection (12) such person shall be liable to the penalty specified in subsection (15) and the order shall be made absolute.

(14) (a) Where such owner or operator of a declared online location appears before the Magistrate in terms of subsection (12) to show cause by way of petition and affidavit, the Magistrate shall hold an inquiry which shall be concluded within two weeks of the date of commencement of the inquiry.
(b) The Magistrate may, having regard to the facts stated by the owner or operator of a declared online location against whom the conditional order is made under subsection (8), either move to have the order set aside or modified, if the Magistrate is satisfied that the order under this section is not reasonable and proper, and make an appropriate order, subject to the provisions of this Act.

(c) If the Magistrate is not so satisfied, the order made under subsection (8) shall be made absolute.

(d) Where the order under subsection (8) is modified under paragraph (b), such order shall be made absolute.

(15) Where the owner or operator of a declared online location against whom the order is made under this section fails to comply with such order within the period and in the manner ordered by the Magistrate’s Court, such owner or operator of a declared online location commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six years or to a fine not exceeding ten million rupees and Magistrate’s Court may make an order directing the Commission to take steps to disable access by the end users in Sri Lanka to the declared online location.

(16) The Commission may at any time suspend, vary or cancel a declaration made under subsection (1) for such period as the Commission may determine-

(a) on its own initiative; or

(b) on an application by-

(i) the owner or operator of the declared online location; or

(ii) any person with editorial control over the online location.
(17) For the purpose of subsection (16), a person has “editorial control over an online location” if the person is able to decide-

(a) whether any statement may be included or excluded on the online location; or

(b) where to place any statement on the online location.

(18) Upon a declaration being suspended, varied or cancelled under subsection (16), the Commission shall-

(a) publish, in such form and manner as may be prescribed, a notice of the suspension, variation or cancellation in the Gazette; and

(b) make reasonable efforts to give a copy of such notice to the owner or operator of the declared online location.

29. (1) An internet service provider must take reasonable steps (both in and outside Sri Lanka) to ensure that, after a prescribed period commencing on the date a declaration made under section 28 comes into effect, any paid content that it includes or causes to be included on a declared online location, is not communicated in Sri Lanka on the declared online location.

(2) An internet intermediary must take reasonable steps (both in and outside Sri Lanka) to ensure that, after a prescribed period commencing on the date a declaration made under section 28 comes into effect, any paid content that it includes or causes to be included on a declared online location is not communicated in Sri Lanka on the declared online location.
(3) An internet intermediary must take reasonable steps (both in and outside Sri Lanka) to ensure that, after a prescribed period commencing on the date on the declaration made under section 28 comes into effect, it does not, when acting as an internet intermediary, facilitate the communication in Sri Lanka of any paid content that gives publicity to, or otherwise promotes, a declared online location.

(4) An internet service provider or internet intermediary shall be treated for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2), as the case may be, as having taken reasonable steps to ensure that any paid content that it includes or causes to be included on a declared online location is not communicated in Sri Lanka on the declared online location, if it has taken such steps as may be prescribed.

(5) An internet intermediary is treated for the purposes of subsection (3), as having taken reasonable steps to ensure that it does not facilitate the communication in Sri Lanka of any paid content mentioned in that subsection if it has taken such steps as may be prescribed.

(6) A person who fails to comply with the provisions of subsection (1), (2) or (3) commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to a fine not exceeding ten million rupees and in the event of a second or subsequent conviction, such term of imprisonment or fine or both such imprisonment and fine may be doubled.

30. (1) Any person, whether in or outside Sri Lanka, who solicits, receives or agrees to receive any financial or other material benefit as an inducement or reward for operating a declared online location commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine not exceeding five million rupees and in the event of a second or subsequent conviction, such term of imprisonment or fine or both such imprisonment and fine may be doubled.
(2) Where a court convicts any person of an offence under this section, the court shall order, in addition to imposing on that person the punishment in subsection (1), the forfeiture of any assets acquired through the commission of an offence under this section.

31. (1) A person, whether in or outside Sri Lanka, who expends or applies any property knowing or having reason to believe that the expenditure or application supports, helps or promotes the communication of prohibited statements to the end users in Sri Lanka on a declared online location commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine not exceeding five million rupees and in the event of a second or subsequent conviction, such term of imprisonment or fine or both such imprisonment and fine may be doubled.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to an internet service provider or an internet intermediary which gives any consideration for the purpose of communicating any paid content in Sri Lanka on the declared online location.

(3) Where a court convicts any person of an offence under this section, the court shall order, in addition to imposing on that person the punishment in subsection (1), the forfeiture of any property acquired through expending or applying any property by the commission of an offence under this section.

(4) For the purpose of this section, “property” means money and all other property, movable or immovable, including things in action and other intangible or incorporeal property.
PART VI

COUNTERACTING INAUTHENTIC ONLINE ACCOUNTS AND COORDINATED INAUTHENTIC BEHAVIOUR

32. (1) If the conditions in subsection (2) are satisfied, the Commission may issue a notice in writing to an internet intermediary, requiring it to do one or both of the following, for the period specified in such notice:

(a) to refrain from permitting its services from being used to communicate any prohibited statement in Sri Lanka through one or more specified online accounts; or

(b) to refrain from permitting any person from using one or more specified online accounts to interact with any end user of its internet intermediary service in Sri Lanka.

(2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1) shall be, as follows:

(a) such online account or accounts shall have been created with the internet intermediary in respect of which the notice under subsection (1) is issued;

(b) either a prohibited statement has been communicated in Sri Lanka using the specified online account or coordinated inauthentic behaviour has been carried out in Sri Lanka using the specified online account; and

(c) the Commission has determined that the online account is an inauthentic online account or is controlled by a bot.
(3) The notice shall be deemed to be served on the internet intermediary, if it is served by personal service, sent by post to the last known address of such internet intermediary, or served by electronic means to such person, or by any other method deemed proper by the Commission depending on the nature of the case.

(4) Where a notice issued under subsection (1) has not been complied with, the Commission shall submit an application to the Magistrate’s Court. Upon considering such application the Magistrate may issue a conditional order on the internet intermediary containing the directions applied for by the Commission under subsection (1).

(5) An Order made under subsection (4) shall specify that it has effect-

(a) indefinitely; or

(b) for a specified period not exceeding three months.

(6) The order made under subsection (4) shall be deemed to be served on the internet intermediary against whom the order is made, if the order is served by personal service, sent by registered post to the last known address of such person, or served by electronic means to such person, or by any other method deemed proper by the Magistrate depending on the nature of the case and in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(7) The internet intermediary against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (4) shall either comply with such order or appear before the Magistrate as specified in subsection (8) to show cause as to why the order shall not be made absolute.
(8) Where the internet intermediary against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (4) intends to show cause, it shall appear before the Magistrate making that order, within a period of two weeks of making such order and move to have the order set aside or modified in the manner hereinafter provided:

Provided however, any internet intermediary against whom a conditional order is made under subsection (4) shall be bound to comply with the order with effect from the date of making such order until such order is set aside or modified by the Magistrate in terms of the provisions of this section.

(9) If the internet intermediary against whom an order is made under subsection (4) neither complies with the order nor appears before the Magistrate under subsection (8) he shall be liable to the penalty specified in subsection (11) and the order shall be made absolute.

(10) (a) Where such internet intermediary appears before the Magistrate in terms of subsection (8) to show cause by way of petition and affidavit, the Magistrate shall hold an inquiry which shall be concluded within two weeks of the date of commencement of the inquiry.

(b) The Magistrate may having regard to the facts stated by the internet intermediary against whom the conditional order is made under subsection (4), either move to have the order set aside or modified, if the Magistrate is satisfied that the order under this section is not reasonable and proper, make an appropriate order subject to the provisions of this Act.

(c) If the Magistrate is not so satisfied, the order made under subsection (4) shall be made absolute.

(d) Where the order under subsection (4) is modified under paragraph (b), such order shall be made absolute.
(11) Where the internet intermediary against whom the order is made under this section fails to comply with such order within the period and in the manner ordered by the Magistrate, such person commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or to a fine not exceeding ten million rupees, and the Magistrate may make an order directing the Commission to take steps to enforce such order by preventing access to the prohibited statement within Sri Lanka, notwithstanding anything contrary in any other law.

PART VII

APPOINTMENT OF EXPERTS TO ASSIST INVESTIGATIONS AND THEIR POWERS

33. (1) The Minister may, in consultation with the Minister assigned the subject of Justice, appoint, by Order published in the Gazette, any public officer or an employee of a Government department, public corporation or a Government company, having the required qualification and experience in electronic engineering or software technology (hereinafter referred to as an “expert”) to assist the Commission in the investigation of an offence under this Act.

(2) For the purposes of this section-

“expert” includes-

(a) any member of the staff of any university who possesses the prescribed qualification and, who is nominated by the Vice-Chancellor of the relevant university;
(b) any public institution which in the opinion of the relevant university possesses the prescribed qualification and is nominated by the Vice-Chancellor of such university:

Provided that where an “expert” cannot be identified in terms of paragraph (a) or (b) above the Minister may, in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor of the relevant university appoint any other institution which satisfies the prescribed qualification;

“Government company” means a company registered or deemed to be registered under the Companies Act, No. 07 of 2007 in which the Government or a public corporation or local authority holds fifty per centum or more of the shares of that company;

“university” means any university established under the Universities Act, No. 16 of 1978.

(3) The qualification and experience (having regard to the specific areas of expertise) required to be fulfilled by an officer appointed under subsection (1) and the manner and mode of appointment and the conditions of appointment of such officer shall be as prescribed.

(4) For the purpose of an investigation under this Act, an expert called upon to assist the Commission shall, have the power to-

(a) enter upon any premises along with a police officer not below the rank of a sub-inspector;
(b) access any information system, computer or computer system or any programme, data or information held in such computer to perform any function or to do any such other thing;

(c) require any person to disclose any traffic data;

(d) orally examine any person; and

(e) do such other things as may be reasonably required, for the purposes of this Act.

(5) An expert shall be paid such remuneration as may be determined by the Minister in consultation with the Minister assigned the subject of Finance.

(6) An expert may be called upon to assist the Commission or any police officer in the investigation of an offence under this Act and it shall be duty of the expert to render all such assistance as may be required for the purposes of such investigation. Where any proceedings have been commenced consequent to the findings of an investigation, it shall be the duty of the expert to make available for the purposes of such proceedings, any information, data, material or other matter that may be obtained by him in the course of such investigation.

34. Any person who is required by an expert, under the authority of a police officer, to make any disclosure or to assist in an investigation in respect of an offence under this Act shall comply with such requirement.

35. (1) An expert who assists a police officer, for an investigation in respect of an offence under this Act, under the authority of a warrant issued in that behalf by a Magistrate, on application made for such purpose by the police officer, may -
(a) obtain any information including subscriber information and traffic data in the possession of any internet service provider; or

(b) intercept any wire or electronic communication including subscriber information and traffic data, at any stage of such communication.

(2) The Minister may, by regulations prescribe the manner in which, and the procedures required to be followed in respect of, the retention and interception of data and information including traffic data, for the purposes of any investigation in respect of an offence under this Act.

PART VIII

FINANCE

36. (1) The Commission shall have its own Fund.

(2) There shall be credited to the Fund of the Commission all such sums of money as may be voted from time to time by Parliament for the use of the Commission.

(3) All sums of money required to defray expenditure incurred by the Commission in the exercise and performance of its duties and functions under this Act, shall be paid out of the Fund of the Commission, and such other expenditure to be charged on the Fund in terms of this Act.

(4) The Commission shall cause proper accounts to be kept of the receipts and expenditure, assets and liabilities and all other transactions of the Commission.

(5) The financial year of the Commission shall be the calendar year.
37. The provisions of Article 154 of the Constitution relating to the audit of the accounts of public corporations shall apply to and in relation to the audit of the accounts of the Fund of the Commission.

PART IX

GENERAL

38. (1) Save as expressly provided in this Act, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to investigations, institution of proceedings, the trial of offences and to appeals from judgments, sentences and orders pronounced at any such trial under this Act.

(2) Where the Commission, on consideration of material collected in the course of investigations conducted under this Act, is satisfied that any person has committed an offence under the provisions of this Act, it may take steps to institute criminal proceedings in terms of section 136 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979.

39. (1) The jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all offences under this Act shall be vested with the Magistrate’s Court.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1), where there are aggravating circumstances or circumstances that give rise to public disquiet in connection with the commission of an offence, it shall be lawful for the Attorney-General to forward indictment directly to the High Court.
40. Any person who attempts to commit an offence under this Act or to cause such an offence to be committed, commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding one half of the maximum term provided for each of such offences or to a fine not exceeding one half of the maximum fine provided for each of such offences or to both such imprisonment and fine.

41. A person who abets an offence under this Act commits an offence and shall be tried in the same manner, and shall on conviction be liable to the same punishment, provided for in this Act for the first-mentioned offence. In this subsection the expression “abet” shall have the same meaning as in sections 100 and 101 of the Penal Code.

42. A person who conspires with any other person to commit an offence under this Act commits an offence and shall be tried in the same manner and shall on conviction be liable to the same punishment provided for in this Act for the first-mentioned offence. In this section, the expression “conspire” shall have the same meaning as in section 113A of the Penal Code.

43. Every offence under this Act shall be –

(a) a non-cognizable offence within the meaning of and for the purposes of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979; and

(b) a bailable offence within the meaning of the Bail Act, No. 30 of 1997.

44. Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body of persons, then, if that body of persons is-
(a) a body corporate, every director, or other principal officer of that body corporate;

(b) a firm, every partner of that firm; and

(c) an unincorporated body, every individual who is a controlling member of such body and every principal officer of that body responsible for its management and control, commits an offence:

Provided however, that no such person shall be deemed to have committed an offence if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

45. (1) A suit or prosecution shall not lie against-

(a) the Commission for any act which in good faith is done or omitted to be done, by the Commission under this Act; or

(b) any member, staff of the Commission or an expert appointed under section 33 for any act which in good faith is done or omitted to be done, by such person under this Act or any other Act.

(2) Any expenses incurred by the Commission in any suit or prosecution brought by, or against, the Commission before any court, shall be paid out of the Fund of the Commission and any costs paid to, or recovered by, the Commission in any such suit or prosecution, shall be credited to the Fund of the Commission.
(3) Any expenses incurred by any member, staff of the Commission or an expert assisting the Commission, in any suit or prosecution brought against such person in any court in respect of any act which is done, or purported to be done, by such person under this Act or on the direction of the Commission shall, if the court holds that the act was done in good faith, be paid out of the Fund of the Commission, unless such expense is recovered by such person in such suit or prosecution.

46. (1) The Commission shall within three months of the end of each financial year, prepare a report of its activities during that year and its proposed activities in the following year, and shall transmit a copy of such report together with a copy of the audited accounts of the Commission for that year, to the Minister.

(2) The Minister on receipt of a report prepared under subsection (1)-

(a) shall cause a copy of such report to be placed before Parliament;

(b) may require the members of the Commission to clarify any matter arising from such report to Parliament or a Committee of Parliament; and

(c) may require the Commission to publish such report and accounts in such manner as the Commission considers appropriate to bring them to the attention of the public.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), every annual report shall contain-

(a) a general survey of developments during the year to which the report relates in respect of matters falling within the scope of the Commission’s function and in particular, ensuring online safety; and
48. The Commission shall be deemed to be a scheduled institution within the meaning of the Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023, and the provisions of that Act shall be construed accordingly.

49. (1) The Commission shall make rules for the purpose of the following matters:-

(a) to issue the codes of practice applicable for internet service providers and internet intermediaries who provide internet based communication services, specifying security practices and procedures required to be followed by them; and

(b) to specify the manner in which the websites providing social media platforms to the end users in Sri Lanka shall be registered under this Act.

(2) The Commission shall make the first rules under subsection (1), within twenty four months from the date of commencement of this Act.

(3) The Commission shall, prior to making rules under subsection (1), hold public consultations for a period of not less than two weeks.

(4) The period of public consultation referred to in subsection (3) may be extended for a further period as may be specified by the Commission.
(5) Every rule made under subsection (1) shall be published in the Gazette and shall come into operation on the date of publication or on such later date as may be specified therein.

(6) Every rule made under subsection (1) shall, within three months from the date of its publication in the Gazette, be placed before Parliament for approval and any rule, which is not so approved, shall be deemed to be rescinded with effect from the date of such disapproval, but without prejudice to anything previously done thereunder.

50. (1) The Minister may make regulations in respect of all matters which are required by this Act to be prescribed or in respect of which regulations are required or authorized to be made under this Act.

(2) Every regulation made under subsection (1) shall be published in the Gazette and shall come into operation on the date of publication or on such later date as may be specified therein.

(3) Every regulation made under subsection (1) shall, within three months from the date of its publication in the Gazette, be placed before Parliament for approval. Every regulation which is not so approved shall be deemed to be rescinded as from the date of disapproval, but without prejudice to anything previously done thereunder.

(4) Notification of the date on which any regulation is deemed to be so rescinded shall be published in the Gazette.

51. In the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the provisions of this Act and any other written law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.
