- (5) In municipalities stipulated by a special act the Obligee shall disclose information also in the language of national minorities.
- (6) Provisions of §8 to §12 shall apply to any restrictions on disclosure of information.

§7

Obligation to Refer to Publicized Information

- (1) Should the applicant request information that has already been disclosed, the Obligee may, instead of providing the information, forthwith, but not later than within five days, inform the applicant on how to find and retrieve such disclosed information.
- (2) Should the applicant insist on having access to previously disclosed information, the Obligee shall provide it. In such event, the period for providing access to information shall commence on the day the applicant stated it insists on a direct access to information.

Limitations of the Access to Information

§8

Protection of Classified Facts

If the requested information has been classified in accordance with the law as a state or professional secret, or as a fact subject to protection of information by encryption, and the applicant has no authorization, the Obligee shall not provide such information, but shall reference to the appropriate legal statute.

§9

Protection of Person and Personal Data

- (1) Information relating to person and privacy of a natural person, personal letters, pictures and representations, as well as any image and sound recordings relating a natural person or its personal expressions, shall be provided by the Obligee only if so stipulated in a special act or with a prior consent of the person affected. Should the affected person be dead, consent may be given by a close person. Provisions of special regulations shall not be hereby affected.
- (2) Information on personal data of a natural person that is processed by information system under the conditions set by a special act shall be provided by the Obligee only if it is stipulated by a special act or upon prior written consent of the person affected. Should the person affected not have legal capacity, the consent may be given by an appropriate legal representative. Should the affected person be dead, consent may be given by a close person.<sup>13</sup>

§10

Protection of trade secret

- (1) The Obligee shall not disclose any information classified as a trade secret.
- (2) Disclosure of the following information shall not be deemed as a violation or jeopardizing a trade secret:
  - a) information related to a significant impact on health of the population, world cultural and natural heritage, environment, including biological diversity and ecological stability,
  - b) information on environmental pollution,
  - c) information obtained through public funds or relating to the use of public funds or state or municipal property,

d) information on state assistance and information under §3, Section 2.

§11

Other Limitations on the Right to Information

(1) The Oblige shall limit disclosure of information or not provide information, if

a) information was obtained from a person not required by law to provide information, who upon notification of the Oblige instructed the Oblige in writing not to disclose information. If the person authorized to give consent for disclosure of information fails to reply within 7 days upon notification, it shall be deemed that the person consented to disclosure of information. The person must be informed of the consequences in the notification,

b) information is to be disclosed under a special act; and if it is to be disclosed under such law within a period set in advance; and not later than such period,

c) it may violate intellectual property rights under a special law, except if the author consented to the disclosure of information upon notification of the Oblige,

d) it concerns the decision-making power of the courts and law enforcement bodies,

e) it concerns the place of habitat of endangered species of plants and animals, minerals and fossils and there is a threat of inappropriate destruction, damage or disturbance.

(2) The provision of subsection a) shall not apply with respect to information obtained through public funds or information concerning the use of these funds or information concerning the use of state or municipal property.

(3) If in order to carry out tasks under special act the Oblige obtained information from a third party which is subject to non-disclosure rules or other limitations protecting information from being publicized or abused but the information may be provided under this Act, the Oblige shall provide only that information which is directly connected with its tasks.

§12

Terms of Limitation

The Oblige shall exercise any limitation of the right to information by providing all requested information including all associated information, after excluding information stipulated by law. The entitlement to refuse information shall only last as long as the reasons for non-disclosure exist.

§13

Disclosure of information under this Act shall not be deemed as a violation of confidentiality rules stipulated in special act.

Disclosure of Information upon Request

§14

Disclosure of Information Request

(1) The request may be filed in writing, orally, by telephone, fax, e-mail or any other technically reasonable way.

(2) It must be clear from the Request what Oblige it is addressed to, who filed it, what information it concerns and what way of disclosure the Applicant suggests.

(3) Should the request fail to meet the requirements stipulated in Section 2, the Oblige shall notify the Applicant without any delay to complete the incomplete request in a period of not less than seven days. The Oblige shall instruct the Applicant on how to complete the request. If the Applicant fails to complete the request despite the Oblige's notice and information cannot be provided due to such deficiency, the Oblige shall table the request.

(4) The request is deemed filed on the day the Oblige with appropriate competence was notified.

(5) Upon request, the Oblige shall confirm in writing the filing of the request and shall give an estimated cost of disclosure of information.

§15

Request Assignment

- (1) If the Obligees does not have the requested information available and knows where it is possible to obtain the information, it shall pass on the request within five days to the Obligees that has the requested information available, otherwise it shall reject the request by a resolution (§18).
- (2) The Applicant shall be notified of the passing on of the request by the Obligees without delay.
- (3) The period for request disposition shall commence anew on the day the Obligees obtained the passed on request.

Disclosure of Information Upon Request

- (1) Information shall be disclosed mainly orally, by inspection of files, including the possibility to make a copy or notes, by transfer of data to a data carrier, disclosure of copies of original with requested information, by telephone, fax, mail or email. If it is not possible to provide information in a way requested by the Applicant, the Obligees and the Applicant shall agree on a different way of providing the information.
- (2) The Obligees shall enable anybody to make copies, notes or abstracts from files and documents without any requirement to prove legal or any other interest.
- (3) The Obligees shall take measures to prevent violation of obligations under §8 to 12 by inspection of documents.

§17

Request Disposition Periods

- (1) The Obligees shall dispose of the request for information without undue delay, but not later than ten days after filing of the request or after any missing requirements in the request are completed (§14, Section 2 and 3) unless stipulated otherwise herein.
- (2) The Obligees may extend the period (Section 1) for serious reasons by a maximum of ten days. The following shall be deemed serious reasons:
  - a) seeking and gathering of requested information at a location not in the seat of the Obligees disposing of [processing] the request,
  - b) seeking and gathering of a large amount of separate or differing information requested in a single request,
  - c) justifiable technical problems related to the search and disclosure of information that are expected to be removed within the extended period
- (3) The Obligees shall notify the Applicant of the extension of the period without delay, not later than before the termination of the period (Section 1). The Obligees shall state the reasons leading to the extension of the period in the notice.

§18

Request Disposition and Resolution

- (1) If the Obligees provides the required information to the Applicant to the extent and by the manner under §16 within the period stipulated by law, the Obligees shall issue a resolution that is to be recorded in a file. No appeal is possible against this resolution.
- (2) If the Obligees fails to satisfy the request, even partially, it shall issue a resolution to that effect within the period stipulated by law. The Obligees shall not issue the resolution if the request was carried over (§16, Section 3).
- (3) If the Obligees failed to provide information within the period set for disposition of the request, or to issue a resolution or provide access to the information, it shall be deemed that the Obligees issued a resolution denying information. The third day after the termination of the period set for request disposition shall be deemed to be the delivery day of the resolution (§17).
- (4) If the Obligees (§2, Section 3) fails to satisfy the request, even partially, it shall file a motion with the person that established the Obligees, or with whom the Obligees made an agreement on environmental tasks, requesting that a resolution (Section 2) is issued.

§19

Remedies

(1) Parties to the proceeding may file an appeal against the Obligee's resolution rejecting to disclose requested information within 15 days from the delivery of such resolution or lapse of the period for request disposition under §17. The appeal shall be filed with the Obligee that issued or should have issued the resolution.

(2) The decision on the appeal against decision of the Obligee shall be made by the superior of the Obligee that issued or should have issued the decision. If it is a decision of the municipal office, the decision on the appeal shall be made by the mayor. It shall be possible to file an extraordinary remedy against the decision of the central body of state administration, which will be decided by the head of the central body of state administration.

(3) The appellate body shall make the decision within 15 days from the delivery of the appeal by the Obligee. If the appellate body makes no decision within this period, it shall be deemed that it issued a resolution rejecting the appeal and confirming the appealed decision; the second day after the lapse of the period for issuing of resolution shall be deemed to be the delivery day of this resolution.

(4) The resolution rejecting the application can be examined in a court proceeding under a special law.

Registration of Requests

The Obligee shall keep a registry of requests in order to provide data necessary to review the process of request disposition and data on most frequently requested information. The registry shall contain mainly the following data:

- a) the date of filing of the request,
- b) information requested and the requested way of disclosure,
- c) the disposition of request (provision of information, resolution or request assignment),
- d) filing of an appeal.

§21

Costs

(1) Information shall be provided free of charge, with the exception of the payments not higher than the cost of material for reproduction, cost of technical carriers and delivery of information to the Applicant.

(2) The Obligee may forgive the charges,

(3) The details on the costs of disclosure shall be regulated by a generally binding regulation of the Ministry of Finance of the Slovak Republic,

(4) Any payments shall be the income of the Obligee.

§22

Transitional and Final Provisions

(1) Unless stipulated otherwise herein, general provisions on administrative proceedings shall apply to the proceedings under this law.

(2) Disclosure of information from state archives shall be governed by a special regulation.

§23

Terminating Provisions

Act 171/1998 of the National Council on Free Access to Environmental Information shall be revoked.

Special provisions on environmental information

§33a

Disclosing Information on Environmental Pollution

(1) Any natural person licensed to carry out business or legal entity obliged under special regulations, or resolutions based on such regulation, to measure the amount of specified emissions into the air or water or watch; or to measure any other impacts on environment by a facility run by such person, shall disclose the results of these measurements and observations in generally comprehensible form and on a generally easily accessible place on a regular basis not later than ten days after the end of each month when such obligation applied and disclose a summary not later than 30 days after the end of a calendar year.

(2) It must be clear from the publicized results of measurements and observations what was the extent of the pollution of environment by the facility and what was the relation of the measured values to the legal or permitted limits.

(3) A natural person with a business license or a legal entity that gravely endangered or caused damage to the environment, especially as a result of any accident of the facility, fire or traffic accident shall inform the public without any delay. The information shall include, to the extent known, a brief description of the incident, its causes, extent of damage or danger to the environment or its individual parts and adopted measures. The form and extent of publicized information shall correspond with the type, seriousness and extent of danger or damage to the environment and capacity of the Obligee.

(4) Observance of the obligation under Section 3 shall not affect the disclosure obligation or any other obligations under special acts.2)
